
BIDS ARE EXPECTED to be let this summer on the Orinda By-Pass project. The By-Pass is projected to span 3600 feet. The entire project from Ardilla Road to the State highway interchange will total 4600 feet of four lane road. Shown as a heavy dark line on this preliminary plan by the County Public Works Department, the road will be approximately 64 feet wide containing four lanes 12 feet wide and two eight-foot shoulders. Only two roads will intersect the by-pass itself. They are Camino Sobrante and Santa Maria Way. These two roads are ultimately planned to cross the by-pass when East Bay Municipal Utility District lands are opened. Orinda Highway will dead-end past Santa Maria Way. State law would not permit a second crossing at the interchange, which would defeat the purpose of the project. Estimates on total cost are not available as yet. Recommendation on major channel work and culverting have not been submitted by the Flood Control District. El Toyonal and Loma Vista will be joined prior to entering the by-pass. A transition will be constructed near Ardilla Road, converting the present two-lane segment to four lanes. The entire 4600 feet will be built of a plant mix surfacing (black top). Traffic signs, lighting, sidewalks and the like have not as yet been planned. The road will be a through route rather than an urban street. The original map is now on display at the office of Orinda Chamber of Commerce Secretary Clarence Betz in the Dykes Building at the Crossroads.

Transit Fund Plans Are Told

Report Says Annual Cost Would Be $18.50 a Person

For about $18.50 a year, each person in the nine Bay Area counties can buy himself a piece of the world's newest, fastest rapid transit system.

This is one of the major conclusions that may be drawn from the Stanford Research Institute's financing analysis of how the Bay Area can pay for the rapid transit system proposed last January by the engineering firm of Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Hall and Macdonald.

(See comment in "Under the Sun" column, editorial page.)

Between now and 1990, the three-stage mass transportation system will cost $1,890,000,000. This sum will pay for the entire system, rolling stock, interest during construction and other capital provisions, according to the Stanford report.

THE STANFORD REPORT points out that the total of all costs for the initial system and for the second and third stage construction costs would reach the $1.89 billion figure. Still, the per capita costs to Bay Area citizens for these extensive facilities would be only $630 and over a period of 34 years this would amount to only $18.50 per year. Or, taking the high estimate of population as projected by the engineers for the year 1990, 7 million persons, the per capita cost would amount to less than half this amount.

The Stanford Institute study assumes, for purposes of analysis, that financing will be by means of five to 30-year serial bonds, with an average interest cost of 2.5 per cent.

THE $29 MILLION from fares would be enough to cover the system's operating costs, service the debt on the rolling stock and leave a small reserve fund.

But, said the Stanford Research Institute report, about $31 million a year would still be needed to service the debt, exclusive of that on rolling stock, and pay off the entire indebtedness for the first stage of the system within 30 years after the start of construction.

It is believed that fund-raising could be administered most easily, the report of the institute concludes, if all public support were obtained from a single source—such as property tax or sales tax applied uniformly throughout the transit region.

BUT A COMBINATION of methods seems more feasible, more equitable, and more likely to "produce desirable economic and social results than reliance on a single source of support," the report states.

The institute examined the following possible sources of revenue:

1. Fares—Financing by fare revenues, if ample, said the Stanford Research Institute report, would be "almost ideal."

2. Bridge tolls—The institute analysis found that tolls of the Bay Bridge could bring in about $9 million annually if applied to rapid transit purposes.

3. PROPERTY TAXES—Regional property taxes would be necessary to "give security to regional bonds," the Stanford Research Institute reported.

If all Bay area property were taxed uniformly at 67 cents per $100 assessed valuation, the yield would be approximately $31 million. But, said the Institute, property owners would not be the sole beneficiaries and are not necessarily better able to pay taxes than anyone else. Therefore, part of the public support should come from sources other than property owners.

Perhaps a differential tax on property within a certain distance of the system—four miles, for instance—might be fairer than "a uniform rate throughout the area."

4. SALES TAXES—Such taxes could be collected regionally with compartively little extra administration, the Stanford Research Institute reported.

A tax of eight-tenths of one per cent on retail sales in the nine Bay Area counties, for instance, would yield more than $33 million a year right now, it is estimated.

5. Gas taxes—These taxes, under state law, are restricted to highway use, the institute pointed out. A special half-cent per gallon tax on Bay Area sales would produce $5 milion a year; three cents per gallon would produce $30 million, almost what would be needed.

6. Others—The Stanford Research Institute lumped income taxes, gross receipts taxes and payroll taxes together, said they were costly to administer regionally and "are not regarded as appropriate . . . except as a last resort."

THE RESEARCH INSTITUTE'S study was based on information in the Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Hall and Macdonald report and on data drawn from U.S. and Canadian transit organizations, many different regional authorities and districts, from government officials, investment bankers and experts in transportation, public finance and public service.

The institute stated that the probable organization to administer a Bay Area rapid transit system would be a regional one, either an authority or a district.

A regional organization, said the Stanford Research Institute, would have financial ability superior to several independent local units or to private interests.

A REGIONAL organization should have full authority to determine fares, routes and standards of service and should delegate complete management responsibility for operations to a professional transit operator, the institute report said.

The regional organization should have the power to buy, sell, lease, construct, operate or supervise all types of transit facilities but should be required to give due regard to the business of competing and complementary facilities. It also should be empowered to receive financial aid or other aid from other govern-

Conference With C of C Suggested By Association

A letter suggesting that problems of mutual concern might be profitably discussed by representatives of both organizations has been sent to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce by the Orinda Association.

Authorized by the association board at its meeting Monday night at Orinda School, the letter was signed by Mel Arighi, association president.

Mrs. Ritchie Ward, association secretary, reported yesterday that a letter had been sent to Chamber President Ned de Laveaga.

IT WAS AGREED by the association directors that selection of association representatives to attend a joint association-chamber conference would be up to Arighi.

Board action followed a report by Vice-President Gene Estes and Treasurer Marvin Baker, who at the February 27 meeting had been asked by Arighi to study the matter.

The Civic Affairs Committee had proposed that steps be taken to bring about cooperation between the association and the chamber.

Other business at the board meeting included:

1. ASSIGNMENT of Estes, by Arighi, to contact J. R. Marsh of 212 Camino Sobrante and arrange for a meeting of people in that area with Ernest Spiegl of Orinda, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District director, regarding disturbances by the Sanitary District pumping station in the vicinity.

Marsh had complained of disturbing noises. Estes had investigated, and reported that in addition to noise there was odor and unsightliness.

2. REPORT by Paul Pollaczek, chairman of the incorporation study committee, that a detailed report is expected to be made by June 30.

Pollaczek said that the committee is being reorganized, that he hopes to have a dozen persons on it and that meetings are planned to be held at least twice each month.

He added that the Coro report on possibilities of Orinda incorporation will be used as a basis for deliberations, but that effort will be made to apply the Coro report specifically to the local scene.

3. SUGGESTION by Joseph Nicolet, chairman of the Orinda Civil Defense Sub-Council which is being formed with the aid of the Orinda Association, that neighborhood improvement groups organize their own civil defense committees and cooperate with the schools in disseminating civil defense information.

Such dissemination could also be accomplished through the Civic Affairs Committee, he said.

Nicolet urged that at least one person in each family take a first aid course. He reported that the bell-and-light warning system at the local schools is in working order.

4. Announcement that Rudy Kraintz, county building inspector, will discuss building inspection procedures at the Civic Affairs Committee meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in the Glorietta School multi-purpose room.

'Ultimate' Sewer District Area May Be 148,900 Acres

"Ultimate service area" as envisioned for the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District by the Brown and Caldwell engineering report would consist of approximately 148,900 acres, Gerry Horstkotte Jr., manager-engineer of the district, told the Lafayette Improvement Association Wednesday night.

The complete report on Sanitary District operations and perspectives is being printed in San Francisco and will be issued in the near future, Horstkotte told the meeting at Lafayette Town Hall. An interim report was presented recently.

"It would appear," Horstkotte said, "that the proper form of financing the recommended expansion program of about $7 million would be a bond issue supported in part by property taxes and in part by annexation and connection fees."

SANITARY DISTRICT Board President Irving Roemer told the meeting that if a bond issue were floated, it might not mean additional taxes.

"This is a bond issue that may not cost you anything taxwise," Roemer said.

"We may be able to retire the bonds out of the difference between the 27.3-cent maintenance and operational tax rate and the full tax rate of 60 cents which the district is permitted to levy and which the district board decided to levy."

Horstkotte explained that the 60-cent tax rate, permitted by law, means that 27.3 cents are used for maintenance and operacents is being used for capital funds.

tion and that the balance of 32.7

POINTING OUT that the Sanitary District was formed in 1946, Horstkotte said that the district board's attitude until 1954 was that "annexations had little to offer."

"From 1954 on, we've had a change in policy regarding annexations," Horstkotte stated. "Since then, our perspective has been on a watershed basis.

"The Contra Costa Sanitary District, as envisioned by this report of Brown and Caldwell, will ultimately consist of the entire Walnut Creek Watershed, about 119,000 acres; most of the Moraga watershed, or about 7000 acres; the Orinda watershed to Bear Creek Divide, approximately 14,200 acres, and the Amador Valley watershed, about 8100 acres.

"THAT WILL MEAN an ultimate service area of about 148,900 acres — from a gross viewpoint.

"On the basis of estimated population densities, there will be a net service area of 88,000 acres.

"Present service area of the district is approximately 32,000 acres."

ROEMER DECLARED that the Brown aid Caldwell report "justifies the district's philosophy on annexations and on watershed perspectives."

"Bacteria don't know about boundaries and maps," he remarked.

$1 Million Construction Planned for High Schools

Acalanes High School District trustees this week developed plans for spending nearly $1 million in construction projects at Las Lomas iHgh in Walnut Creek, Acalanes High in Lafayette and Miramonte High in Orinda.

Building will include the following: At Miramonte, a multi-use room to be completed by December, paving, parking area, bus yard, turfing athletic fields, installation of stage equipment in the school gym, tennis courts and landscaping, all to be completed by September, 1956.

IN ADDITION, eight classrooms will be built, including provision for a complete science department, by fall of 1957. By that time the Orinda High School is expected to be physically able to handle 700 students.

At Acalanes is contemplated four additional classrooms, added locker and shower facilities, and a maintenance shop, all to be ready by spring of 1957.

At Las Lomas, two classrooms will be completed by summer of 1957 in addition to the five classrooms ready by this fall. Auditorium, stage facilities and enlarging the present Las Lomas gym will be completed by this fall.

Trustees meeting Monday and Tuesday stated that the projects planned for Acalanes and Las Lomas will bring each school to the 1250 enrollment capacity recommended in the recent enrollment projection conducted by researchers at Stanford University.

They also approved construction at Acalanes of personnel facilities for the district transportation workers; approved employment for another year of L. W. Ewart as district auditor; accepted the completed contract for repairs by Paddock Pools on the Acalanes swimming pool.

They called for bids for two school busses; science tables to outfit an additional science room at Acalanes; bids for 1800 football field bleachers for Las Lomas to bring that school's athletic field seating capacity to 3000 and coincide with the installation of lights for the field.

Extension of the existing transportation agreement with Moraga Elementary District was approved.

Moraga Trustees Hire Study Team

Trustees of the Moraga school district signed an agreement with Odell-McConnell and Associates, educational consultants, to conduct a study of the Moraga District Monday night at the regular session of the School Board.

A study of school sites and estimated future population of Moraga will be reported to the school board by the group.

Jack Buchter was contracted by the trustees as architect of the School District. Next regular meeting of the board will be April 9 at the Moraga school.

Orinda Launches Fund Campaign for Library

Brown Named Financial Head By Citizen Group

At the request of the Orinda Library Board, Perc S. Brown of Orinda has agreed to serve as general chairman of the committee to raise funds for the Orinda Library.

Brown stated that headquarters would soon be established in Orinda and that planned organization of Orinda residents to accomplish the project was starting and when completed would be announced.

"In the near future many residents will be called in to help in carrying out the plans and I know they will pitch in with both time and money," said Brown.

IT IS BELIEVED that all the organizations, clubs and associations in Orinda will volunteer, as the Orinda Lions Club and the Orinda Junior Women's Club have already done, as soon as it is made clear to them how they can best help. "This will be done as soon as possible," Brown continued.

Brown stated it seemed particularly appropriate the announcement should be made during National Library Week and further that "most residents of Orinda probably felt as he did, that the need for a public library in Orinda was so great and so widely recognized that once the facts were clearly and faithfully presented to the residents of Orinda they would put their shoulders to the wheel and do the job."

He mentioned that many newspapers country-wide this week had published editorials, the substance of many of them being that the status of public libraries in this wealthy country, was in general deplorable — that many city libraries were run down and inadequate and that innumerable, heavily populated suburban and unincorporated areas had no facilities at all.

Many editorials mentioned the need for Federal aid.

BROWN commented that "Orinda was fortunate in the type of residents it had, all of whom would readily realize the Federal Government has no money except that which it collects from the people — that in any event no Federal aid is available and finally the one best and sure way if the community wants a library is to do the job itself."

Brown said it had been expressly agreed that funds collected for Orinda Library would solely be used for building and properly equipping an adequate, appropriate and functional library to meet the needs of Orinda.

That whatever minor sum had to unavoidably be spent, such as for stationery, utilities, printing, paid advertisements, postage, dependable stenographic help, etc., would be accounted for separately.

STEPS have already been taken to assure that cash contributions, when called for, can be made as tax deductible contributions under the appropriate statutes. The handling of all funds will be audited and promptly upon completion of the project a certified audit will be published, Brown explained.

"I am convinced that the Orinda Library Board has thoroughly and competently explored the subject, with competent legal advice. It is now known just what can and can not be done and further just how it can be accomplished. These facts will be clearly and factually presented to Orinda to the end that every Orinda family should put forth a united effort to accomplish a needed, highly useful, very much worthwhile and lasting commnuity project," stated Brown.

Brown is a chemical manufacturer. For many years his avoca-

Flu Virus Causing Twice Normal Absences in Schools

Central county school administrators and health officials today are concerned over hundreds of cases of student illnesses, largely traceable to so-called "flue virus" which have more than doubled absenteeism in recent weeks.

County Health Officer H. K. Blum said that not only students, but several school teachers and officials have been "knocked out" temporarily by some sort of virus infection of the upper respiratory tract, which usually lingers for from two days to more than a week.

Others, less hard hit, have reported a general listlessness for several days at a time, according to a survey taken by The Sun.

AT ACALANES High School in Lafayette, the peak was reached in the last days of February, when on one day 90 students of some 1100 were absent, and about 60 due to some sort of flue virus, or other such cause.

Las Lomas High nurses reported that several hundred boys and girls were out of classes within several days early this month. Enrollment there is 860.

Similar reports were received at other schools, including grammar schools. The typical student is back after two or three days.

The general opinion of nurses was that there is no serious problem, although the absenteeism is high. A 30 to 40 per cent incidence of upper respiratory tract illness would be necessary to cause alarm according to one nurse.

BLUM DECLARED that "this bug will continue to circulate for a while, it appears. One week it hits one school hard, and another it moves to another school.

"Though the exact bug which is causing the trouble has not been traced through normal methods, there is no indication of the presence of the influenza germ which killed thousands of people during World War I.

"It appears that that bug ran out of people, and those who lived became immune."

Usual symptoms have been a sudden fever and aching in the muscles. Recommended by doctors has been rest, and medical treatment if necessary. In many cases, anti-biotics have been administered.

Reports on the local and state level have been compiled in cooperation with the World Health Organization Influenza Surveillance Program. Where an ill person is suspected of having the disease, immediate laboratory tests are made.

Investigations are being conducted to determine and isolate the many forms of colds and viruses related to influenza, said Blum.

Red Cross Drive for $29,000 Progressing; Diablo Leads

Red Cross Fund Drive for 1956-1957 got under way March 1 with workers making door to door calls in Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Canyon, St. Mary's, Walnut Creek, Sun Valley, Pleasant Hill, Ygnacio Valley, Alamo, Danville, Diablo and San Ramon.

About 14 per cent of a $29,000 quota was raised in the first week in the effort being conducted by Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American National Red Cross, it was announced.

DIABLO WAS the first to attain and exceed its quota. Mrs. George Gelser, captain of the drive there, announced that $669 had been raised. The quota for Diablo was $500.

Selection of chairmen for Walnut Creek has been completed as follows: northeast, Mrs. Ed Hill; northwest, Mrs. A. B. Horstmann; southeast, Mrs. John Selley; southwest, Mrs. George Ahlf; business section and Sun Valley, Lloyd King and Dean Montagne.

"We are counting on all persons within the chapter to give generously toward the great humanitarian work of the Red Cross," Robert I. Schroder, fund drive chairman said.

"Give as generously as you can when you are called upon and if a Red Cross worker misses you, please send or bring your donation to the chapter house at 1395 Ygnacio Avenue, Walnut Creek."

Report Analyzes Methods To Pay for Rapid Transit

mental agencies or from private sources.

The institute pointed out that a separate legal study should cover details of legal framework or activation of a rapid transit district or authority.

IN THE FIRST stage construction, estimated total cost would be $875 million, including rolling stock, interest during construction and other capital provisions. The first stage would be so built as to be capable of serving the extended system.

If costs and general economic benefits are recognized, the institute's analysis says a good case could be made for a general property tax—"at least a moderate one"—throughout the Bay Area. The institute admitted, however, that there was a valid argument for a higher charge on residents and property owners close enough to enjoy full benefits of the transit system.

IN ALLOCATING the bulk of the charges this might be done by omitting the counties not served by the first-stage system, or through zoning, so that, for example, a property tax distribution might be 20 cents per $100 in a zone including all property within four miles of the transit lines and five cents per $100 assessed valuation in the balance of the area.

The burden of paying for the rapid transit system depends, in large part, on the methods used to finance such a system, says the report.

By paying fares passengers will carry the largest portion of the costs borne by any class of population in the areas—unless all public support comes from a single source such as property tax or sales tax. Passengers also will pay their share of any general taxes collected.

If collections from a combination of methods exceed the amount needed, the surplus, the Stanford report concludes, could be apportioned to cities or counties for appropriate needs such as local transit, feeder lines, parking facilities or more general use.

Realtors Take Credit for Increased Home Ownership

Realtors can be largely credited with the marked increase in home ownership of recent years — and the important community benefits flowing from this situation, Barney Gilbert, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, said today.

The board executive's statement, coming during the current observance of Realtor Week, noted the steady rise in the percentage of owner-occupied homes, and the vast improvement of home quality.

"In 1940," he said, "41 per cent of our nonfarm population owned the homes they occupied. In 1950, this ratio was 53 per cent, and it is now nearly 60 per cent.

"Improvements in homes showed corresponding increases in quality during this same 15-year period," Mr. Gilbert said.

"For instance, the precentage of nonfarm homes with private indoor flush toilets rose from 73 per cent in 1940 to 80 per cent in 1950. In the same period, the percentage of homes with private installed bathtub or shower increased from 68 to 77 per cent, and the ratio of those with electric lights climbed from 91 to 97 per cent.

"These are basic improvements, but there have been many other additions to comfortable homeliving. There has been a huge increase in the number of homes having mechanical refrigerators, and a large expansion in those with gas or electric cooking equipment.

"All of these things make home ownership more attractive and have contribtued to the steady rise in this form of family home living.

"Persistently at work in expanding this important community asset have been Realtors — those brokers who are pledged to a high code of business ethics and who are members of the local real estate board and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards," Mr. Gilbert explained.

"Realtors are constantly seeking to work out arrangements in financing and in sales which will enable more and more of our neighbors to enjoy home ownership. Much of this assistance has been provided those of modest means who need special guidance in obtaining the best financing available.

"Efforts of Realtors to broaden the base of home ownership are mandatory under the ethical code to which they subscribe. Included in the Realtor's six point pledge are these lines:

"'I pledge myself to protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it.'

"Those with realty problems — the buying and selling of property — would certainly be well advised to consult a Realtor. As we say in this observance of Realtor Week: Realtors are those pledged to an established code of ethics."

Orinda Rotary Observes Past Presidents Day

Past President's Day was observed by the Orinda Rotary Wednesday at the Willows.

In attendance were all past presidents of the Orinda service group, Merle Brown, Frank Olsen, Joe Sheaff, Layton MacGregor and Frank Shirey.

A new song which was written on the recent Reno trip was introduced to the membership. The song called "Rotary Fellowship" was written by Dan Popovich. Lyrics were produced by Jack Buchter, Stan Allen, Maynard Buehler, Earl Cappel and Joe Dale, district governor of the Fresno area.

Next week Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom will be the guest speaker of the Rotary. His topic will be "What the Church Can Do for World Peace."

Paul Pease was program chairman for the day.

Days Get Warm Nights Cooler

Temperatures remained constant this past week in Orinda with the highs remaining in the sixties and lows in the 30-40 category.

No rain was reported in the area by weather observers. Days and nights continued to be clear and cool with high clouds in the late mornings. High temperature for the week was recorded Wednesday and low for the week was reported Tuesday morning.

	High	Low
March 8	63	34
March 9	62	35
March 10	64	35
March 11	61	41
March 12	65	33
March 13	66	31
March 14	67	32

Six Seek Post Of Supervisor In 2nd District

The Second District supervisorial election race was assured of six candidates this week.

They are Mel Nielsen, Edward M. Larmer, William R. Zion, Brig. Gen. C. R. Wallace, David Comstock and Harold Mutnick.

Wallace, retired Marine Corps officer who has the backing of the Citizens Committee for Better Government, filed his nomination papers Monday at the election department in the county clerk's office in Martinez. He is a resident of Danville.

Nielsen, Lafayette tire dealer, filed hi spapers on March 7, the opening day of the filing period, which will continue until 5 p.m. March 30.

LARMER AND ZION took out papers last week but had not yet filed them early yesterday morning, according to the county clerk's office.

Zion has been research director for the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, a post from which he has resigned in order to conduct his campaign.

MUTNICK, Lafayette attorney, announced yesterday that he will be a candidate for supervisor. He said he will take out his papers today or Monday.

Comstock, an artist and advertising man who lives in Alamo, has definitely annonuced his candidacy, although as of early yesterday morning he had not yet taken out his papers, according to the county clerk's office.

THE INCUMBENT, veteran Supervisor H. L. "Jack" Cummings, has annonuced that he will not seek reelection.

He has been supervisor for 24 years and Board of Supervisors chairma nfor almost six years.

TIME GOES ON

Time doesn't necessarily change all things . . . on January 5, 1895 a heavy rain fell, flooding the county and filling Orinda's streets. The storm was unprecedented since 1862 and the county wagon-road to Oakland was blocked by a landslide of about 200,000 tons of earth. A detour was necessary.

Chairmen Named for Easter Seal Drive for $20,000

Eleven Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Danville residents are chairmen of important committees in the 1956 Easter Seal Campaign which began last week, it was revealed today by Mrs. Allen Jones, area chairman for the appeal.

The campaign began Saturday, with a goal in Contra Costa County of $20,000. Sheets of the colorful stamps with a picture of a crippled child were mailed to 90,000 residences.

MRS. WILLIAM Stock of Danville is chairman of the Mailing Committee; Dr. William Close of Danville is chairman of the Coin Container Committee, assisted by Mrs. R. Morris and Mrs. J. Hallum of Danville.

Mrs. Frank Rose of Danville is School Campaign chairman; Mrs. Delrose Phinney is Lily Parade chairman for the Danville area; Mrs. B. Burnett of Lafayette is Lily Parade chairman for Lafayette, assisted by Mrs. George Jensen.

Mrs. M. Rosemont of Walnut Creek is Lily Parade chairman for the Walnut Creek area. Mrs. C. Wikander of Walnut Creek is Displays chairman, assisted by Mrs. R. Shipley, Girl Scout Leader and resident of Diablo.

Mrs. Jones added that the Easter Seal organization has "one of America's largest and most effective force of volunteers."

"The men and women who have accepted responsibilities in the Easter Seal Campaign take their places among more than 400,000 citizens who will give service voluntarily and without pay to America's Easter Seal Societies this year," she said.

"In California alone, more than 15,000 volunteers will serve, 600 of whom will see service in Contra Costa County."

MRS. JONES called on every county resident to back the volunteers by contributing liberally to the Easter Seal Campaign.

"These generous workers have put in many hours of unselfish service since campaign work was started. Their work will make it easy for all of us to contribute to crippled children in 1956. I hope no citizen fails them or the crippled children for whom they are working."

Residents have been requested to mail contributions to the Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County, 1372 Main Street, Walnut Creek, or use the return addressed envelope accompanying the Easter Seals.

THE LOCAL campaign will end April 10.

Two-thirds of the funds contributed here will remain in Contra Costa County and be used for direct services to local children.

The balance will help to finance a national research foundation giving attention to the causes and treatment of crippling and will assist in operation of education and direct service programs of the California and National Societies for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. Brown Visits Family in North

Mrs. G. C. Brown of Orinda has returned from an 8-day trip to visit her daughter, Marjory, and her son-in-law, Kenneth Korn, at Sacramento.

While in Sacramento, Mrs. Brown attended a party given by the folk-dancing club of which Mr. and Mrs. Korn are members, and the Women's Guild of the Pioneer Congregational Church.

Here's Real 'Un-' Funny Business

Several cases of vandalism were reported this week in Orinda. School children have virtually demolished the Library Site sign near the Orinda School.

Several reports have been made to The Sun that car tires have been slashed in the vicinity of the Country Club and car windows have been broken.

Tuesday, a house under construction at Las Trampas and Glenside in Lafayette was broken into, electrical fixtures pullled out, plumbing damaged and spark plugs were pulled out of an earth mover (Cat D-6). Estimated damage was in excess of $100.

'Firing' Report Denied by PIE, Also by Palmer

A press release from the Orinda Association's Homeowners Committee stating that termination of Ted Palmer's employment as public relations director for Pacific Intermountain Express Company resulted from the recent association-conducted poll regarding the Pine Grove was described this week as "absolutely false and untrue" by two PIE officials and by Palmer himself.

The Homeowners Committee press release stated in part:

"His termination was brought about as a result of a petition-poll signed by the residents of Orinda and filed with the Planning Commission, indicating that they want to keep Orinda residential and that they oppose PIE's request for rezoning . . .

"William Penn Mott Jr., chairman of the Homeowners Committee, stated that he felt that it was most unfortunate that Mr. Palmer had to be sacrificed as the scapegoat for the trucking firm's failure to persuade the people of Orinda to approve their rezoning application."

The press release reported: "The vote was 3298 against allowing the trucking firm to build a central office in Orinda, with only 1460 in favor of the rezoning."

"THE PRESS RELEASE about Palmer is absolutely false and untrue and has no foundation in fact," Parkman Sayward, PIE vice-president who is in charge of public relations for the firm, said.

"We are going through a realignment of jobs and responsibilities and are consolidating our overhead and field organiaztion. Palmer, being one of the newer employees of the company, was given severance pay. This had nothing whatever to do with the Orinda situation."

C. E. JOHNSON, executive vice-president of PIE, confirmed Sayward's remarks and added:

"Palmer is still on our payroll, although not full-time. We have done away with the advertising and public relations departments as separate departments. Palmer, who is going into public relations work for himself, will handle special assignments from us, along with his other matters. He will continue to handle the Orinda matter for us.

"Ted Palmer and I are still intimate friends, and I have a lot of respect for him. There's absolutely no connection between our reorganization and the Orinda picture."

Palmer's full-time connection with PIE ended March 1, according to Sayward, who added that he had been with the firm about two years.

PALMER, at his home in Oakland, confirmed the officials' statements.

"It's ridiculous to say that I was 'fired' because of the results of the association poll," he said. "I was let go because of PIE reorganiaztion, which has nothing to do with the Orinda situation, and I'm going into the public relations business for myself."

FOOD FOR PHEASANTS

Pheasants stranded along the Sutter By-pass levee because of the December and January floods have been fed a total of 9350 pounds of grain by the Department of Fish and Game, Knights Landing Sportsmen's Club and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

County Taxpayers Criticize Special District Directors

A protest against "Too Much Government" was voiced by the County Taxpayers Association this week in its official newsletter, which concluded with a call for enforcement of election laws against directors of special districts, "some of whom disregard the law and perpetuate themselves in office."

A tangled mess of county government, or multiplicity of governments in the form of city, school districts and special purpose district, was scored by "The Spotlight," signed by Association President Bruce Howard.

THE MESSAGE said in part:

"There are one county, 11 city, and 35 school district autonomous governments in Contra Costa County.

"But, in addition, there are 102 special purpose districts carrying on separate, and often overlapping programs.

"To indicate the complexity of this problem there are the following types of districts: 2 cemetery, 2 community services, 6 fire, 16 county fire protection, 1 flood control, 3 hospital, 19 lighting, 2 mosquito abatement, 3 park, recreation and parkway, 10 sanitary, 1 sanitation, 1 sewer, 6 sewer maintenance, 5 county service area, 2 soil conservation, 2 storm drain maintenance, 1 storm drainage, 2 utility, 1 vehicle parking, 15 water, 1 waterworks, and 1 municipal utility.

"Approximately 10-15 new districts are being established each year.

"With this much government it is clearly impossible for the citizen to make his wishes known, and instead of democratic representation we have chaos. A great deal of this confusion can only be solved through state legislation, but among those actions which could be taken on a local level are:

"Consideration by the citizens and the commissioners of adjoining and like districts of the possibility of consolidation.

"Increased guidance and consultation from the county departments to the policy boards and administrators of special districts.

"TIGHTENING of the financial controls by the county under already established state laws and greater participation by the county in the preparation of the budgets of special districts under the Supervisors' control.

"The enforcement of election laws regarding incumbent directors of special districts, some of whom disregard the law and perpetuate themselves in office.

"The requirement by the Supervisors of a special study of the projected costs and revenues of special districts before they are established or allowed on the ballot."

Mickie Wilbur Wins State Art Contest

"Mickie" Wilbur, eighth grade student at Pine Grove School, was one of three Junior High school students who won Awards of Merit in the Northern California Scholastic Art Contest.

The awards will be presented in a ceremony in the auditorium of the Emporium, San Francisco.

Mickies entry was in the black and white photographic division.

Five thousand entries from 400 school were submitted to the contest.

Bicycle Given To Janet Gilwee

Janet Gilwee, 41 La Cuesta, Orinda, is the winner of a bicycle given away Saturday at Village Shoe Shop in the Village by Fireman Frank of T.V.

Better know as Skinny-in-the-pit, Fireman Frank thrilled approximately 750 persons at the store. Other than drawing the winning number, Frank signed autographs for his many Orinda T.V. fans.

Demos Endorse Quinney, Koch, Miller, Masterson

Three hundred seventy-four registered delegates from Contra Costa and Solano Counties, plus a gallery of spectators, attended the Democratic Pre-primary Endorsing Convention at Martinez Junior High School last Saturday.

In a four-way race, Dr. H. R. "Bob" Quinney, dentist and civic leader from Vallejo, received the endorsement of the convention for the congressional seat from the 6th District.

William D. McKee, Lafayette Democratic Club member, nominated Quinney.

ON THE FIRST ballot, no candidate received the 60 per cent vote of the convention required for endorsement, although Quinney approached the goal with better than a majority. Sidney Golman, Danville attorney, showed surprising strength. He was followed by Thomas Kendall, Walnut Creek school teacher, and Milton Spinner of Richmond, who ran a poor fourth.

Before the official results of the ballot were announced, Kendall withdrew from the race and announced that he wished to change his vote to Quinney. Many Kendall supporters immediately followed his lead, giving Quinney the votes needed for endorsement and eliminating the necessity for a second ballot.

All candidates agreed to follow the convention's endorsement, including Spinner, who had earlier indicated that he might run for the office with or without endorsement.

In his statement before the convention, Quinney attacked the record of the Republicans on taxes, labor law, foreign policy and farm policy.

THE CONVENTION next endorsed Russell M. Koch, 30-year-old attorney from Pleasant Hill, for the Assembly from the 10th District. He will oppose Donald Doyle, present incumbent.

Koch is a native of Oakland and is an active member of the Legal Committee of the American Civil Liberties Union.

After receiving the endorsement, Koch introduced his wife, Annette, who was on hand to congratulate him, and their 4-month-old son, Karl.

Koch's name was placed in nomination by Bruce Doerner of Pleasant Hill, who acted as his campaign manager preceding the convention. Mrs. Harold Walters of Orinda seconded Koch's nomination. Mrs. Walters is the Orinda chairman of the Stevenson for President campaign.

KOCH ENTERED the Assembly race only two weeks before the convention.

Both Quinney and Koch received pledges of support from the other candidates who had vied with them for endorsement.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER for the convention was State Senator Richard Richards of Los Angeles, who was endorsed for United States senator and who had received the endorsement for United States senator and who had received the endorsement of the statewide convention o fthe California Democratic Council in Fresno last month.

In his address Richards voiced strong opposition to the tax and fiscal policies of the present Administration, and to the Taft-Hartley labor law and the amendments passed by the 83rd Congress.

He warned his fellow-Democrats, however, against opposing the Administration blindly, urging non-partisan support of those policies compatible with the spirit of the Democratic Party platform.

SELECTED TO RUN for state senator were incumbents George Miller Jr. of Alhambra Valley and Luther Gibson of Vallejo. Miller is in the Contra Costa County 17th district, and Gibson in Solano's 15th District.

Endorsed for State Assembly were incumbents S.C. Masterson of Richmond, 11th District, and Sam Geddes of Napa, Fifth District.

LOCAL AREA RESIDENTS and Democratic Club members played a leading part in the organization and conduct of the convention.

Chairman of arrangements was Mrs. Ralph Reid Jr. of Orinda. Chairman of the resolutions committee was McKee, and serving with him were Dow Votaw and Neil Falconer, also of Lafayette, and James Benney of Orinda.

Mrs. Bruce Doerner of Pleasant Hill was chairman of the credentials committee and was assisted by Mrs. Alan Gittlesohn of Lafayette and Mrs. Walters. Mrs. Richard Nesbitt, Walnut Creek, acted as secretary of the convention. Robert Patmont of Orinda served as teller, and Bruce Doerner was publicity chairman.

THE DELEGATION from the Orinda Democratic Club was headed by Patmont, president, and included Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dempster, Mesdames John Glascock, Paul Weber and Harold Walters, and Messrs. William Viavant and Cyril Atkinson.

The delegation from the Democratic Women of Orinda was headed by Mrs. Charles Hanks, president, and included Mesdames Lance Barden, Sid Croff, Leonard Roth, Irving Leiber, Ralph Reid Jr. and James Benney.

From the Central Contra Costa County Democratic Club the delegation included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keating, Mesdames William Ross, Marion Powelson and Myron Mercer, and Messrs. Walter Keller, James E. Shank, Frank Hoff, David Comstock, Pat Sullivan, John S. Hopkins and Robert C. Hurlbert.

The delegation from the Pleasant Hill Democratic Club included Miss Nell Merrich, Messrs. and Mesdames Russell Koch, Clair Seegmiller and Bruce Doerner, Mrs. H. E. Dawkins, Edward Clay and John Scaglione.

The Lafayette Democratic Club delegation was headed by Neil Falconer, president, and included Messrs. and Mesdames Alan Gittlesohn, Dow Votaw and William McKee, Messrs. George Jonas, James Benney and Edward Rosston and Mrs. Richard Nesbitt.

Quinney told the convention:

"The Eisenhower administration will be guilty of one of the most shocking crimes of omission if it does not immediately and sternly warn the feudal dictators of the Arab States that this aggression against democratic Israel will not be tolerated by the United States or the United Nations. . .

". . . Let us join the Negro citizens in the movement of passive resistance . . . let us donate an hour's wages to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

". . . the Taft Hartley Act can and must be amended . . . my record as a liberal Democrat who has supported organized labor, liberal candidates and the liberal issues is open for public inspection . . ."

Harold Mutnick Enters Race For Supervisor

Harold E. Mutnick, Lafayette attorney, yesterday announced his candidcay for the office of supervisor from the Second District, represented at the present time by H. L. Cummings of Crockett.

Mutnick intends to take out his papers today or Monday.

In announcing his candidacy, Mutnick stated that "the Second District is the only one in Contra Costa County which does not contain a single incorporated township (Orinda, Lafayette, Danville, Alamo, San Ramon and Crockett are all unincorporated)"

HAROLD E. MUTNICK

He listed the following as his declaration of policies and platform:

"1. Tax relief for the property owner.

"2. Preservation of the semi-rural atmosphere.

"3. Redistricting of the supervisorial districts.

"4. Study of county government reorganization.

"5. A guaranty of no-conflict between public duties and private interests.

"6. Serious and unbiased study of each issue before casting vote as supervisor."

Mutnick, 38, is vice-president of the Lafayette Improvement Association and chairman of its planning committee.

Mutnick and his wife, Dorothy, reside in the Glenside area of Lafayette. Mrs. Mutnick is president of the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of Universiy Women and secretary of the Lafayette Women's Club (formerly the Lafayette Women's Forum).

Code of Ethics Cited In Realtors Week Talk

The exacting demands of those with real estate problems and the need for the integrity and special skills of a professional are met by "Realtors, pledged to an established code of ethics," Barney Gilbert, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, said today.

The board leader's statement was issued in connection with Realtor's Pledge Day during the current observance of Realtor Week ending tomorrow.

The local board is joining with hundreds of other similar boards during this period in acquainting the public with the services of Realtors — those who are members of these boards and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

"MORE AND more," Gilbert said, "the intricacies of buying and selling real property for others require the abilities of professional persons — those who have proven competence and have publicly avowed to serve all in fairness. In the real estate field, such persons are Realtors.

"Realtors are real estate brokers — with something added. Realtors, besides meeting state eligibility requirements for all brokers, pledge themselves to abide by a code of ethics, far more demanding in daily dealings than the law governing brokers.

'This is the pladge that is taken by all brokers who join a local real estate board and the National Association of Real Estate Boards (the national Realtors' association). Among other things, this pledge calls on the Realtor 'to act toward all in the spirit of the Golden Rule.'

"The Realtor's pledge to this course of conduct is assurance to those coming to him with realty problems that they will be protected in complex transactions — dealings foreign to most persons.

"BESIDES ETHICAL conduct, the pledge commits the Realtor to work for the best interests of the community in property matters. It calls on him to be well informed — and to keep informed — about all phases of market conditions and law which affect property dealt with.

"Framing and assembling of these rigorous standards of business conduct began 40 years ago during the formation of the national Realtors' association. It was the aim then — and now, too — to establish and maintain a set of principles to insure competence and fair dealings in realty transactions. In effect, this was and is an effort to professionalize the industry.

"We of the local board believe our code of ethics — and those living by it — have gone a long way toward accomplishing this. We believe that the public has benefitted. We feel that all will continue to benefit by dealing with those who have pledged themselves to act in accord with this code — the Realtors of this board and others across the country."

Bob Rupley Wins Speech Tourney

Sewer District Sued for $5000

Central Contra Costa Sanitary District is being sued for $5000 by a Lafayette couple for negligence, trespass and nuisance because raw sewage backed up into their home and destroyed rugs, furniture and clothing and endangered the health of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Peterson Jr., 1071 Glen Road, claim that on last October 1 their house was flooded by sewage caused by a jlugged sewer main.

They further claim that they weer required to consult a physician to have shots to prevent typhoid fever for themselves and members of their family.

The sewage backed up through a service pipe.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

FERTILIZE!!

Did you fertilize your lawn on March 3? That's what all the baby-sitting husbands were doing while their wives were out fashion showing—at least a pretty good segment of Lafayette Meadows.

JUNIORS

Betty Hanson of Carol Lane had as her guests Gloria McConnell, Evelyn Ball, Peggy and June Miller, Gerda Richardson went with Corky Duke of St. Mary's Orchards, Marge Andreasen had a table of friends from Oakland.

RUTH BARCELON'S group included Margaret Mayfield, Jean Emory, Betty Bridgeford, Barbara Taylor of Orinda and Doris Price of Walnut Creek.

STAY AT HOMES

The Barcelons took pity on the stay-at-homes and had a pot luck supper Saturday night including the Mayfields, the Emorys, the Bridgefords, and Taylors.

Knowing the Barcelons—charades, anybody?

TWO MORE

Two more Barcelon items — Bobby was five years old on March 5, and celebrated on March 7 with a party.

Boo Emory, Dommie DiGrazia, Nancy Hughes, Maureen MacHugh, Betsy Richardson, Janice Repetto, and Lynn Peters were there—they're the in between kids, in between mumps, measles and chicken pox, which goes for all the birthday parties. There will be a new Barcelon with a birthday in August.

BIRTHDAY

A new three-year old is Sherri Armanino of Dyer Drive who served cupcakes and ice cream cones to her contemporaries, Susan Roach, Danny Roach, Leilani Kelsey, Tommy Angella, Phyllis Wright, Connie Osgood, her cousin, Linda Parodi, and her brother, Eddie.

At three, birthday activities are limited, mostly by mothers, but Sherri was happy to have a party.

LUNCH AND SHOW

Fran and Lloyd Plath of Carol Lane had been warned about the birthday activities of six-year olds and the best laid plans of people and parents sometime go astray so on Ricky's birthday on March 3, they served lunch and took them all to the show.

Those who behaved themselves were Mike Loper, Bradley Bixby, Mike Ripley, Claude Corkadel, Maris Emory, Bebby Hansen (who had just given her father the chicken pox) Doug Mayfield, Tommy O'Connell, Ricky Ball, David and Don Tollefson, and Ricky.

Little Debby Cohen was sick and couldn't make it.

SUSAN LORD was also six years old that week, and as soon as she recovered from something that gave her a cough and a fever, invited five of her friends to share her birthday cake.

Those were Laurie Shepard, Tina Horton, Jay Reed, Janice Repetto, and Jeff Smith.

An eye-witness account reported it most successful.

PARTY TIME

Nancy and Everett Horton of Anita Court went to the party the next step up the ladder, the wedding of the daughter of a close friend.

Piedmont Community Church was the scene of the nuptials of Betty Lee Smith of Diablo and James Lange of Redding, and the Claremont Hotel was where the champagne reception was held.

They had quite a varied weekend as the day before they went to the Boat Show in San Francisco and dreamed about getting away from it all in their own cruiser, and from there, went to a sukiyaki dinner at Hotel Yamato.

DON'T

Don't throw away all those papers in your garage. The following eager Cub Scouts from Pack 38 will come and get them if you give them a call. From the Orchard Valley Lane-Almanor Lane area, Mark Middlekauf is your boy.

From Friendship Farms and Lafayette Orchards, Jeff Koester, Randy Angella, Tommy Osgood, Jimmy Lortsher or Jackie Silva will get them.

FLOATING CIRCLE

The floating sewing circle of Lafayette Meadows was almost sunk on its maiden voyage, but an organizational meeting was held at June Miller's recently, and with various ideas being tossed around, it's on its way again.

There will be a limit of twenty at any one meeting, as most felt that was the capacity of our houses, and eventually everyone should be included as it moves around the neighborhood.

Drive carefully—save a life.

Go to Church Sunday

Community

The Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom announces that there will be a service for the reception of new members at the Orinda Community Church this Sunday morning.

Mr. Blossom's sermon at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services will be "A Lesson from a Scoundrel", referring to the parable of a man who believes that life is a matter of saving his own skin.

Organ music for both services will be provided by Dan Popovich, Organist and Senior Choir Director. Everett Titcomb's anthem, "Eternal Praise" will be sung at the early service by a quartet composed of Odette Weatherbe, soprano, Jeanne Watkins, contralto, Ed Richard, tenor and Jim Hupp, base.

Donal Skilling will sing the tenor solo with Odette Weatherbe doing the soprano obligata to the Chapel Choir's rendition of "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Monosmith, Skippers, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fish, Navigators of the Clipper Club, an organization for married couples, urge all interested adults and teen-agers to join the club at The Berkeley School for the Deaf at 8 p.m. Monday for a demonstration of teaching methods and a tour of the facilities.

All who attend are cordially invited to a coffee hour at the Orinda Community Church Fellowship Hall after the tour.

Wednesday at 6:30 the congregation and friends will meet in the Fellowship Hall for the March Church Night pot-luck dinner. A business meeting will follow at which proposed changes in the by-laws will be discussed and a Committee on By-laws Revision will be set up.

There will be entertainment for the children.

Lutheran

Come and hear God's word preached by Mr. Eugene Vandewater as he speaks on the sermon topic "Being a Mediator" at the 8 and the 11 a.m. worship services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Curch in Orinda.

Mr. Vandewater is from Hempstead, New York, a part of greater N.Y., were he graduated from Wagner College, worked in the retail business and completed a part of his service with the U.S. Navy. He is now a student at the Pacific Lutheran Seminary in Berkeley together with working at this church as an intern in charge of the Junior Choir, the Luther League, two Sunday School classes, organist for one of the services and now this Sunday will conduct the service and preach the sermon.

The Luther League through its president, Bob Blake, invites the members of the confirmation class: Patricia Rahmeyer, Gail Garden, Susan Eubank, Carol Felting, Milton Blake, David Coker, George Mulks, and Roger Frankling to a pot-luck supper Sunday evening at 6 p.m. at the church.

"The Crown of Thorns" is the sermon topic for the Wednesday evening lenten meditation by the pastor at 8 p.m.

Ray Meyer, 222 Overhill Road in Orinda, will show the movie he made on his recent trip to Africa with his wife at the Couples' Club which meets Friday evening, March 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoyt on Rheem Drive near St. Mary's Road in Moraga.

The film will show the tracking and the shooting of an elephant in the Tanganika area of eastern Africa. He will also show some slides of the Lutheran Mission in that area. Mrs. Agnus Oliphant, CLifford 4-2228 will receive the reservations.

Covenant

Pastor White says, "You have often heard the commercial of a TV program which says 'Progress is our most important product.' This is also true in our spiritual experience. And a growing person is a contented and fruitful person."

Sunday services, Sunday School, 9:45 a.m.

Morning worship, 11 a.m. Guest speaker, Rev. Richard O. Sandquist.

Youth Groups, 6 p.m.

Evening service, 7 p.m. Guest speaker, Richard O. Sandqust.

Episcopal

Passion Sunday services of 8 a.m. Holy Communion, at which the Rev. Albert Lucas, vicar, will be the celebrant, and Morning Prayer at 9:30 and 11 a.m. will be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

The sermon at the Morning Prayer services will be delivered by Herbert McMurtrey, seminarian at the church, and candidate for Holy Orders from the Diocese of Olympia. Mr. McMurtrey is a second year student at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Both the Junior Choir at 9:30 and the Senior Choir at 11 o'clock will sing as an offertory anthem, the Passion Chorale by Hassler, as adapted by Bach. Church School will meet during the 9:30 service.

At 7 p.m. the Young People's Fellowship will meet in the Undercroft of the church. This will be a social meeting and films will be shown.

On Monday at 7 p.m. St. Vincent's Guild of Acolytes will meet for an instructional session under the direction of John Rands, acolyte master, and Mrs. J. J. Buchter, acolyte mother.

DELIGHT YOUR GUESTS WITH THIS CONTINENTAL FLAVOR . . .

Café au Lait

(IT'S EASY TO SAY CAFAY O LAY)

THE GLAMOROUS WAY TO SERVE COFFEE . . .

The French named it. America is adopting it. Everybody loves it! Smart hostesses serve cafe au lait on many occasions, for it's so simple to prepare, so acceptable to every taste . . . another outstanding example of the flavor magic of milk.

CAFE AU LAIT

The "instant" way is to put one teaspoonful or more instant coffee in a cup (according to strength desired), and add hot milk instead of hot water. Stir and serve hot.

Using ground coffee, brew extra strong, add ⅔ cup of hot milk to ⅓ cup coffee.

Scout Salute...

Troop 101

Girl Scout Troop 101 was recently honored to have Steve De Maria, an Eagle Scout, demonstrate to them the combinations of the weather flag. He also gave colorful highlights on his participation in the eighth Boy Scout World Jamboree as a crew leader.

The members of this troop also attended on March 4 the annual Japanese Doll Festival in honor of Girls' Day at the West 10th Street Methodist Church in Oakland. There were songs, dances and a color film called "Kimono." Tea and cookies were served.

Mrs. Richard Naismith and Mrs. Harold Winters are leaders of Troop 101.

Pack 212

The famous old "Popeye, The Sailor Man" song took on a few new lyrics last week when each Den of Pack 212 presented by turn, original new verses at the monthly meeting held in the Fellowship Hall at Community Church.

The monthly theme, being "Bottom of the Sea," the boys marched into the meeting singing "Sailing, Sailing" and later on in the meeting, presented their prize-winning "popeye" verses to the delight of all present.

Announcements made included forthcoming baseball plans, with practice and games scheduled to start soon on Saturday mornings, 9 a.m. at Orinda School.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, Webelos awards were presented by Carl Dudley, Scoutmaster, to Paul Rieger, John Cooper, Jay Jacobus, John Davison, Greg Peterson, and Eric Ramsing a group of boys who have been together in Cubs for three years and have diligently worked toward this award.

The following awards were also made: Bear — Tim Pardini; Gold on Bear—Charles Eldred; Wolf—Todd Decker, Chip Monahan, Mike Roth; Gold on Wolf—Steve Brush, Tod Neuenschwander; Silver on Wolf—Teddy Behr, Roy Hoyer, Billy Cooper; 1-year pin—Steve Brush; 2-year pin — Steve Dudley; Denner Stripes—Charles Eldred, Billy Lee; Assistant Denner Stripes—Tod Neuenschwander.

The past month's projects including making of fish mobiles which decorated the hall for the meeting. Other activities included shell collections, fish artwork, field trips to museums, submarines, fish restaurants and photographic work.

The boys even got a taste of the briny deep by bounding around on a boat on a stormy sea, courtesy of the movies shown.

Pack 52

At the January 25 Pack Meeting, Orinda Pack 52 welcomed the following transfers: Ronald Carter from Concord, Kenneth Carr from Berkeley, and John Brown and Bruce Medina from Lafayette.

Fourteen boys advanced in rank. Kim Boyer, David Cartwright, Russell Chase, Jeffery Ellermeyer, David Joralemon, James Reynolds, David Read, Kenneth Sanderson, Drew Tracy, and Stephen Totten became Wolves. John Brown and Tom Kling became Bears.

Tommy Doolittle and Bruce Hutchinson became Lions.

Gold Arrows were awarded to John Brown, Tommy Doolittle, Jeff Hall, Bruce Hutchinson, David Read, Kenneth Sanderson, and Drew Tracy.

Silver Arrows were made by Paul Ammon, Dewey Boyer, Brian Clough, Tommy Cooke, Tommy Doolittle, Josh Donham.

Brian Madden, Paul Myer, David Read, Kenneth Sanderson, Dean Swift, Drew Tracy, Peter Venturini, and Michael Warner.

Year stars were given to Dewey Boyer, Tommy Doolittle, Tommy Hecocks, Gary Holm, and Bruce Hutchinson.

Denners stripes were received by John Brown, Brian Cartwright, Brian Clough, Tommy Doolittle.

Clark Drysdale, Joel Eide, Jeffrey Ellermeyer, Ronald Gustafson, David Joralemon, Paul Myer, David Read, James Reynolds, Drew Tracy, Stephen Totten, David Yager.

Den 7 -- 207

Members of Den 7, Pack 207 of Orinda visited the Sun Publishing Company yesterday.

The boys on the tour were Rodney Bedayn, David Miller, Steven Gould, Peter Kimabll, Hugh Kimball and Alan Clarke.

Pack 32

The March meeting of Cub Scout Pack 32 was held at Orinda Grammar School auditorium Friday night.

Seven new boys joined the pack: Bruce Silver, Daniel Buhler, Doug Harmon, Francis Dunning, Michael Byer, John Drake, Michael Sweeney.

The evening was highlighted by a cracker-eating and balloon-blowing contest between fathers of each den. Winners were Taylor, Den 11 and Yaryan, Den 1.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Wearin' of the green is seen

SHURRA 'N BEGORRAH, you know what's tomorrah? 'Tis GOOD ST. PATRICK'S DAY!!!! When EVERYBODY'S Irish and feeling kind of smilish and wearing something green and very gay!

So w/rhyme and verse, we do persist . . .for how could anyone resist the urge to rhyme O'Callaghan, McGinnis and O'Brien . . . w/O'Connor, Kelly, Dooley and Ryan! (Of Irish gentry, there are plenty, in Contra Costa County . . . but for local folk, we had to poke till we had reached our bounty!)

Orinda's Irish are no rarity . . . Witness O'Harra, Maguire, and O'Flaherty . . . Kerrigan, Monahan, Moriarity! Magrath and Mahoney, Malone and Maloney, the Burkes and Caseys and Doyles . . . O'Donnells, O'Connells, the Gillivans, Milligans, Sullivans, Duffys, and Boyles!

AND TOOTLING THE FLUTE McNAMARA'S BAND . . . w/O'DeMaeyer, O'Ohleyer lending a hand. Parading along, and right in step, the Reillys, O'Flenners, full of pep! Play "Kathleen Mavourneen" on the Irish Harps . . . for the O'Campbells, O'Rasmussens, O'Schwatkas, O'Tharps!!

A giant SHAMROCK flown from EIRE . . . for O'Hendrickson, O'Hansen, O'Singer, O'Phair!

A Bit of Blarney from that famous old stone, for O'Howes, O'Zablocki, O'Jones and Malone. Leprechaun's laughter for the Loughmans, O'Dennings, for Mulvanys, McGorums, O'Schwartzes, O'Hennings!

AN IRISH JIG, let's all be dancin' with O'Krusis, O'Yedidias, Gilmores, O'Janssens! Dance on, ye Irish Lads and Lassies; for all the Murphys, the O'de Grassis! White Clay Pipes for O'Beckett, O'Indig, and Corned Beef and Cabbage at each Irish Shindig . . . for the Champions, O'Moores, O'Polgars, O'Kaufmans . . . O'Aberhams, O'Allens, O'Cowgills, O'Hoffmans!

Take down the famed olde sticke SHILLELAGH . . . for O'Smith, O'Rose, O'Barron, O'Haley . . . for McGah,, O'Neill, Newman, O'Braly!

A chorus or two of the "ROSE OF TRALEE" for Devlin McManus, McCarthy, McGee!

FOR ST. PADDY'S PIG, McGINTY'S GOAT and goode olde Irishe Stewe . . . The Top O' The Marnin', tomorrah, from all O'Us to O'You!

A bit of a note of news

This, being Nat'l Library Week, we'd like to mention the fashion show "This Is Your Library" deftly done by the Orinda Juniors at the Orinda Country Club March 6 to swell the coffers for the coming Library Campaign.

Tickets were a sell-out, the sun shone forth and daffodils added a spring touch to the tables where blue boxes in book form opened to reveal fascinating favors.

AMONG THE MODELS, in Lowell Trautman fashions, Mrs. Thomas Howard in a tweedy cotton-rayon suit, looking like a page from Vogue altho' she's the mother of a very new baby! Barbara Johansson, tall and tan, in a classic navy crepe, white-pique collared! Dotty Guinther, cool and country, showing a sheath in peach and apricot linen under a middy costume blouse . . . Marion Everett, striking in Copen Blue, imported linen and lace!

Something for that late evening supper at home, Helen Kling, vivid and smart in Swiss-guard pants of striped Italian cotto, a gold silk shirt. Barbara Anderson, demure and refreshing in dotted swiss w/drawstring neck. Jean Barkley in blue crebasi linen party dress w/flying panels a nd Darlene Byers in a dream of a draped white party gown!

SPOTTED AROUND the springtime crowd . . . Liz Cunningham under a black cartwheel hat . . . Bev Winters in a hand-knit of gold and aqua, a gift from her sister . . . June O'Gabarino at a table w/friends, Jean O'Vicars, Cue O'Goldsmith in another group.

Junior fashions were by Shootime of Laayette and set Mamas to thinking of Easter Shopping!

Matching colors on tap

DECORATING NOTE: Jackson's added to the style w/tips and trends in home decor. The very LATEST features a slew of new colors in "Dirt" shades, the obvious advantage being that the adobe tracked into the house virtually disappears into carpeting which now comes in matching earthen tones! Next time you're shopping around for a rug, tuck a sample of topsoil in your bag to help w/your color choice!

Despite the discomforts of a broken leg, former Orindan Barbara Bailey, who now lives in SF, managed to sit long and low for the Mar. 1 LUAU LUNCHEON hostessed by Alice Rasmussen for members of her NIMBLE THIMBLE sewing circle.

Among the guests, Nan Townsend of Alhambra Valley who brought along her British houseguest, Philippa Bevin (who could easily double for Deborah Kerr), El Kirby of WC, Nell Hershkind, Rita Herlihy, Alice's daughter Peggy Field, and Mrs. Hazel Field, all savoring every bit of the Pinapple Boats filled w/fresh fruit and laced w/Rum and Brown Sugar, Baked Bananas, and Crab Curry.

LAST SATURDAY, A VERITABLE CHILDREN'S DAY in Orinda . . . Don McNelly, II, of Alamo, brought his colorful Calo Cart w/the Bouvier des Flanders and "Crepes Suzette," the French Poodle, to Black's for the celebration, along w/a marvelous collection of assorted pets . . . "Yehudi," the owl, "Lilac," the skunk, "Mr. and Mrs. Ragmop" the cavys, the Monkey, and Gator, all delighting the kids in a miniature "Disneyland" display.

Over at the Village Shoe Shop, the kids crowded around to see "Fireman Frank" who sat tanned and tired outside the store passing out pictures to all his fans. The little Gilwee girl was the Bike Winner and the disappointed fellas hope she has a Big Brother!

Four Scout Dens had a field trip to a Submarine and another Den enjoyed the marine display at Spenger's for a seafood lunch. The kids flocked to the local flickerhouse to line up early for the "Littlest Outlaw."

WHEN THE MUSIC OF DICK DILDINE wafts forth from DIABLO on the springish nite of April 7 for the Mothers Club Blossom Ball, a big crowd of Orinda people and their pals will be trying their terpsichorean talents to delightful music.

St. Pat's parting note: Tomorrow they'll be serving GREEN beer on tap back in Billy McCarthy's famous gaslit restaurant, Third Avenue, New York! Only food coloring but the IRISH love it! In fact, EVERYBODY does!

Wildlife Area for Orinda Schools Now Under Study

By MARY DORR

Representatives from the teaching staffs of the Orinda schools and mothers with children in school met with Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of the Orinda School District, to organize an Orinda Wildlife area to set aside at all schools.

The meeting was held at the home of Raffi Bedayn, 49 Oakwood Road.

Inspiration for this community wide project was the plot of ground at Glorietta School which was planted with California natives under the supervision of Mrs. Raffi Bedayn. The area also has two birdhouses, made and hung by the children, following the directions of the West Coast Audubon Society.

BOTH BIRDHOUSES are tenanted now. Glorietta School hopes soon to have a Bird Feeding Station in this nature area.

Starting with fifteen plants, and now numbering many times that figure, the Glorietta project is at the southwest corner by the creek. Every plant is labeled botanically and is being studied by the children and teachers alike in learning about and practicing conservation.

California natives from all over the state are exhibited there. Mrs. Margaret Anderson, pricipal of Glorietta School, described the preserve as "Nature's Textbook" and it not only prepares the children for camping experience but in recognition of plant material for their whole lifetime.

MRS. BEDAYN told the group that Dr. C. Harold Bryant who is on the Wildlife committee in an Advisory capacity and is author of the classic, "California Outdoor Heritage" suggests that these areas will help develop a "seeing eye for native plants and a conscious nose for nature's wonders".

BESIDES PLANT life, the children may study insects, reptiles and birds along the nature trails. Keeping these facts in mind, all classes in the Orinda Schools will be asked to suggest appropriate names for these designated areas.

A contest has begun in the five Orinda schools and will continue through Wednesday and the class from which the winning name is chosen will be awarded a prize of a bench for the nature area at that school.

A proper inscription will be placed upon the bench. Judges will be members of the Wildlife Advisory Council.

WITH GLORIETTA School serving as an example, all schools plan to draw up contour maps and landscaping plans as soon as possible.

Then it will be necessary to "post the areas" which will give written notice to all horse-back riders and dog owners that the wildlife is to be preserved there.

Students are asked to help create such signs and they may be different at each school. However, when the contest for a name is completed, the name will be standard wordage on the posting at each area.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM was evidenced by all members attending the meeting. Offers of assistance were voiced.

Wayne Miller intends to photograph the projects. At the Pine Grove School an Eagle Scout Troop has volunteered to help with their Wildlife project.

A retired Colonel from the Engineer Corps has offered to help, but all interested ctizens are asked to contact one of the Advisory Committee if they would like to help in any capacity.

Pictures of the Glorietta preserve were shown and refreshments were served by the hostess, with Mrs. H. Stewart Kimball pouring.

THE ADVISORY council of the Orinda Wildlife Committee will be headed by Mrs. Raffi Bedayn, assisted by Dr. Bryant, the former superintendent of the Grand Canyon National Park, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Ralph Hall and Mrs. Anderson.

In addition to the advisory council, others attending the meeting were: William Gaskell, principal of Orinda School, Glen McNicholas, principal and Keith Burnam, teacher at Del Rey School, Miss Cynthia Knox, principal, Sleepy Hollow School, Bill Jackson, teacher, and Mrs. Lawrence Harper, mother, Pine Grove School.

In a general consulting capacity as interested spectators Mesdames S. A. Ballard, John Bartlett, Rudolph Grah, George Fraser, Arthur Bowman, Charles Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller attended.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

Behrs Toboggan, Ski

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Behr of South Trail, Orinda, enjoyed a day of tobogganing and snowballing at Peddlers Hill last Saturday. Their two sons, Teddy and Mark, accompanied them.

Farewells Said By 12:15 Club

The 12:15 Club met this month at the home of Mrs. A. Elkinton of Honeyhill Road. Assisting Mrs. Elkinton as co-hostess was Mrs. Charles Malone.

A charter member of the club, Mrs. A. Pasteris, was welcomed back after a recent illness and was then bade farewell as she leaves for her new home near Auburn.

Many going-away gifts were presented.

The club voted to install two television sets owned by the County Hospital at Martinez as their immediate philanthropic project and are making plans for a card party to be announced at a later date.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. Robert Raskob, president; Mrs. Charles Malones, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. A. W Elkinton, ways and means

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs M. H. Groves, 25 Camino Encinas.

GOP Women See Quarterly Meet Of State Group

Orinda Republican Women's Club members attended the quarterly meeting of the Northern Division of the California Federation of Republican Women at Asilomar Wednesday and yesterday.

Those in attendance were Mrs. Thomas Barrows, vice-president of the Northern Division, Mrs. Ernest Hadden, Mrs. Donald Krotz, Mrs. Marvin Kennedy and Mrs. Robert Galbraith.

Miss Ardis Myhrs, Northern Division president, presided at the two day conference which included speakers, business meetings and round-table discussions.

Troop 123

Girl Scout Troop 123 of the Del Rey area in Orinda recently entertained 12 girls of the Parker School sixth grade Girl Scout Troop 268 of the Oakland Council.

The Del Rey girls served refreshments and the Parker School girls told of their first class activities and taught their hostesses a delightful folk dance.

Mrs. Homer Horten is the leader of Troop 123 and the following girls are members of the troop: Patty Anderson, Susan Coker, Ann Ivanetich.

Katie Jones, Barbara Reynolds, Peggy Simpson, Patty Sullivan, Roberta Nichols, Nicki Burgoyne, Donna Driscoll, Byrnace Thrillkill and Kristine Waldorf.

The Standard Man cut "down time" on my heavy-duty engines

You can reduce "down time," save on overhaul expense and operating costs by lubricating your diesel and heavy-duty gasoline engines with RPM DELO Heavy Duty Lubricating Oil. Specially compounded, it resists corrosion, prevents the formation of harmful deposits, keeps contaminants dispersed and stops foaming of oil in the crankcase.

Engines run smooth, develop more power when you use RPM DELO Heavy Duty Lubricating Oil to keep engines clean and cut wear. And they stay on the job, need less overhauling. So order RPM DELO Heavy Duty today.

Hagstrom Leases Snow Parcel for Market, Stores

Hagstrom's Food Stores, Inc., has negotiated for a 35-year lease for the 3.62-acre parcel owned by John F. Snow in the Planned Neighborhood Business District, just south of Orinda Village, for a modern supermarket "and several smaller stores," E. A. Hagstrom of Diablo, owner and president of the Hagstrom firm, disclosed recently.

"The agreement is in effect now," Hagstrom said.

The land is on the west side of Orinda Highway.

The transaction between the Hagstrom firm and John F. and Virginia H. Snow was handled by R. E. Wadsworth, Orinda realtor.

HAGSTROM SAID that the project would include a construction cost of "approximately $300,000."

"As soon as we get our plans approved by the County Planning Commission, we'll start building," he stated. "We hope to be ready for business there by the time school opens in the fall."

The 71-year-old founder and head of the food-store chain said that the group of stores would constitute a small shopping center and would "fit in with the beautiful countryside of Orinda."

TO BE LOCATED on the John F. Snow land will be the 41st of the Hagstrom chain's food markets and also several smaller stores. These latter, according to Hagstrom, will include a drug store, a variety store, a hardware store and "other smaller units."

"We plan a very, very nice group of buildings that will conform to the surroundings of Orinda and the Planned Neighborhood Business District standards," Hagstrom emphasized.

He said that there would be "ample parking space."

HAGSTROM'S TWO sons, both Orinda residents, are active in the operation of the firm, which was established in April, 1917.

Calvin Hagstrom of 9 Valley View Drive is sales manager. Warren Hagstrom of 41 Meadow View Road is assistant buyer.

Main office and plant of Hagstrom Food Stores, Inc., are at 2930 Broadway, Oakland.

CRANKCASE SLUDGE

Crankcase sludge accumulates much more rapidly in an automobile in winter than during summer because of vapor which forms on the cylinder walls.

Ths is why, more frequent flushing of the crankcase in winter is advisable.

Not Real Indians, But Act Like 'em

Did you think that all the Indians have long since gone from these parts? You're wrong.

Take a peek in the windows of the Lafayette Cooperative Nursery School almost any time, and there you will see a whole room full of them. And not wild ones, either. (Well, some times they do get a little excited!)

The nursery school quarters are in the Educational Building of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church, on Moraga Road.

These pre-schoolers have gone all-out for Indian activities. Besides wearing Indian costumes, made by the school's director, Miss Esther Noland, the children have also made a tepee, made Indian toys, played Indian games, played, danced to and listened to Indian music and have heard stories of Indian children.

Although the children are the most enthusiastic about being Indians, they also enjoy doctor's, nurses' and baker's outfits.

The baker's costumes, made by Mrs. George Jonas, will probably be worn more than the other "dress-up clothes" by the older morning group. The reason is that this group recently went on an excursion to Neldam's Danish Bakery in the Rheem Shopping Center.

Supervising the trip was Mrs. H. W. Von Colditz, and assisting her were Mesdames Amos Leffler, Henry Swab, Milton Walkup and Hans Wendel.

The afternoon group likewise went on an excursion recently. The children went on to Redwood Lane in Happy Valley to hunt pollywogs. Alas, the pond where they looked produced no pollywogs.

Now that spring is on its way, the children have been spending more and more time out in the nursery school yard. Equipment is varied and includes wagons, tricycles, a large sand box with sand toys, wooden crates, boards, ladders and saw horses, scaled to the children's size, a slide and swings.

Over 50 nursery school parents attended the potluck dinner party held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Starkie in Walnut Creek. Welcomed at the party were new members and charter members who do not at present have children enrolled in nursery school.

Troop 204

Recent induction of new scouts into Troop 204 have brought to ten the number of Lafayette families represented by two or more boys among the membership. This is believed to be something of a record for Boy Scout troops.

Three of the brother combinations are very recent: Bill Latone joining his brother Mike; Jim Neuman, his brother Dick; and Jeff Shurtleff, his brother Bill.

The Harold Hollister family of 665 Los Palos Drive has the most active representation in the troop as a result of youngest son Larry passing his tenderfoot rank and joining his brothers Wayne and Stan.

FIRST LAW GOVERNING USE OF AUTOS

The first law governing use of automobiles in the United States was passed in Connecticut in 1901. This law limited speeds within city limits to 12 miles per hour and elsewhere to 15 miles per hour.

Miss Ranker Wins Oratory Contest

A University of Utah coed from Lafayette has been named a winner in the school's annual Founders' Day Oratory Contest. She is Elaine Ranker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Emery Ranker, 3991 Happy Valley Road.

Theme for the 1956 contest was "The University—A Creative Force." Miss Ranker's winning talk was entitled "John R. Park." Park was the first president of the University of Utah.

Miss Ranker placed second among 500 students entering the contest and she was awarded a $25 savings bond. She presented her winning oration at the U. of U. Founders' Day assembly recently and was one of the special guests at the Founders' Day banquet last week.

A senior student majoring in dietetics, Miss Ranker is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is a member of Spurs, national service honorary for sophomore women, and a member of Swean, national service honorary for junior women.

She also is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary for freshmen women, and of Lambda Delta Sigma, religious social fraternity.

Active in publications and debate, Miss Ranker has been a staff member of the Utonian, the University's yearbook.

Merritt Hospital Homecoming

Planning their first homecoming since the 1930's, alumnae of the Samuel Merritt Hospital School of Nursing in Oakland, are seeking names and current addresses of the more than 1300 nurses who have received diplomas since the first class was graduated in 1912.

Homecoming day will be May 12, according to Mrs. M. A. Moffitt, 785 Kingston Avenue, Oakland, president of the Alumnae Association. Class reunions, lunch and a special program are already being planned for the occasion, which falls on Hospital Day.

UNDERGROUND DANGERS When little Pansy plants, Snaps, Asters and others transplanted from flats into borders and beds begin to wilt and die for no apparent reason, the answer is probably underground... wireworms and other destructive soil pests destroying tender fiber roots.

LAWN-A-GEN IS A SOIL DISINFECTANT Safe to use where these little plants are growing so long as you water them well first so they are not thirsty and will not drink up the ether in LAWN-A-GEN. Use one tablespoon of LAWN-A-GEN to a gallon of water and sprinkle it into the soil while the ground is still moist. You kill these pests, cleanse the soil, give your little plants a chance to grow.

Troop 224

Arthur Balbini and Dennis Burger of Lafayette Boy Scout Troop 224 were recipients of the Star Scout Award at their troop's Court of Honor held recently in the Town Hall.

Fred Lercari, senior patrol leader, was in charge of this special meeting, which was attended by a large number of parents and friends.

SOMETHING NEW

Judy Hopkin was the hostess at a "Something New, Something Old" Party for Nancy Jones held recently. Nancy's home burned recently and, of course, all her clothes and belongings were destroyed.

Judy invited school friends to the party and they all brought presents for Nancy—anything a girl could use.

Attending the party were Joell Rutherford, Anne Morris, Gayle Easton, Diane Senger, Sharon Follmer, Sharon Jones, Juanita Parks, Kathie Meima, Stephanie Scott, Ronalee Smith, Caroline Wilson and Sandra Gloria.

Nancy stayed overnight with Judy following the party. Nancy has now moved to San Francisco to live with her aunt and is looking forward to returning to Lafayette next fall and join her friends when they start Stanley School.

BIRTHDAY

Gred Coons and Danny Shaw had a combination birthday party. Greg celebrated his eighth birthday and Danny his ninth. The two boys invited their friends to a "Hobo Party."

The guests came in their best hobo garb and the tablecloth was newspapers and the dishes were tin pie pans and orange juice cans. The cake was decorated with the hobo's stick and bag. Following the refreshments the boys all took part in a scavenger hunt.

Keith Hopkins and Joe Boud won prizes for the best costume and the scavenger hunt was won by Stephen Koch, Steven Yost and Neal Trebotitch.

Greg and Danny's guests included Neal Trebotitch, Joe Boud, Keith Hopkins, Stephn Koch, Stephen and Douglas Coons, Billy Cely, David Brackett, Steven Yost and Jimmy Wilson.

AMONG THOSE from Lafayette Valley attending the Lafayette Junior Women's Club Fashion Show and Luncheon at the Mt. Diablo Codntry Club last Saturday afternoon were:

Edith Kirkham, Lois Kitchens, Betsy Young, Barbara Walkup, Vi Bishop, Dorothy Hughes, Peggy Mahler, Verna Winters, Ruby Banks, Kay Brackett, Lou Case, Joyce Follini and Yolanda Holman.

Daryl Alexander was one of the models in the fashion show.

PROMOTED

R. B. Rhinehart of 3359 North Lucille Lane was recently promoted from Bank of America's Berkeley main office to the rank of assistant cashier at the Stanford branch in Palo Alto.

PUPPIES

The Harmon Bellmers of Florence Drive are the proud owners of a new puppy. He is a boxer pup, know as Duke II.

HOUSE GUEST

The Paul Giusta family had a recent house guest. Mrs. Giusta's mother, Mrs. Cowden of Grass Valley, stayed with them for a week.

The women from Lafayette Valley who so generously devoted their time to the Heart Drive were Mesdames Ralston May, Rodney Saylor, David Harper, T. E. Anderessen, H. A. Case and Joseph Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haggerty and their two sons spent recently at Tahoe Valley. They stayed with friends, the Robert Shepherds who run the Purple Sage Motel at Tahoe Valley. While in the snow country they enjoyed tobogganing and visited the new Happy Valley Ski Lift.

RED CROSS

The annual Red Cross Drive started March 3. Mrs. J. B. Harbuck is district chairman and Mrs. A. J. Haggerty is the captain of the Lafayette Valley Estates area.

The women who are making a house to house drive for the Red Cross in Lafayette Valley are Camilla Smyth, Ellen Meiller, Juanita Parks, Lucille Della, Muriel Cottle.

Parents Attend 'Safety Pageant' Stanley Program

John Jergi's Dramatics Club at Stanley School put on a play called "The Safety Pageant" at the Stanley Parent's Club meeting recently.

The play gave a glimpse of the hustle, bustle and confusion that takes place behind the scenes of many plays. The feverish last minute preparations and worries of the director provide a humorous background for this amusing piece of work.

Their own "audience," consisting of mothers, sisters and brothers added to the fun by trying to be helpful.

The cast included: The Director—Dennis Herrick, Property Man—Pete Noble, Safety—Suzanne Jenders, Reckless Pedestrian—Janet Partland, Childhood—Bobby Lee, Old Age—Joanne Lindville, Helpfulness—Dixie Lee, Go Signal—Linda Montgomery, Stop Signal—Judy McKenzie, Careful Driver—Carol Luck, Careless Driver—Carolyn Morrill, Fear—Nancy Holland, Protection—Jack Putnam, Accident—Randy Egleston.

Audience: Mona Larson, Patty O'Neil, Linda Clifford, Linda Drake, Mary McDowell, Brenda Hodges, Curtain man and stage hand—Ted Cannon.

County March of Dimes Tops $135,000, Report

Contra Costa County residents contributed more than $135,000 to the 1956 March of Dimes, according to Chairman Donald D. Doyle.

Assemblyman Doyle revealed results of the polio drive at a recent annual meeting of the Contra Costa County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"As usual, our volunteers have done the impossible," Doyle declared. "The outlook wasn't good—the county had suffered extensive flood damage, and continuous rains stalled construction work and left many unemployed.

"BUT THE March of Dimes workers went out in rain and mud to see that everyone had a chance to contribute, and the people of our county dug deep and gave all they could and then some.

"I know that I can speak for the Foundation's officers and directors, the scientists working to perfect an even better vaccine, the polio patients and their families when I say we are deeply grateful to all who worked and all who gave."

Members of the Contra Costa County Chapter who attended the meeting at Danny Van Allen's restaurant in Lafayette heard Dr. M. C. Kern, chairman of the Chapter's Medical Advisors, report that the Salk vaccine has been proven to average 76 per cent effective.

"THIS FIGURE" is based on statistics taken where, in most cases, only one or two of the prescribed three injections had been given," Dr. Kern explained. "If these children had all taken the three shots necessary for complete effectiveness of the vaccine, we estimate it would have proved at least 90 per cent effective."

George Argys, state director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, revealed that scientists working on grants from the Foundation are striving to perfect a new and even more effective vaccine which he predicts will relegate the crippling disease to the "medical scrap heap" along with smallpox, typhoid, diptheria, and other plagues of former years.

Here are the some of the totals from local drives, and the chairmen in each area;

Lafayette, $11,626.19, Mrs. Lois Lindberg and Dr. Edward R. Ligon; Orinda, Moraga, Canyon, $10,421.14, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lucas, A. J. Baitzz and A. Fleuti; Pleasant Hill, $7098.71; Walnut Creek, $7301.05, Sheldon Rankin and Bill Hayward.

Dons to Present Operetta

Acalanes music students will present their annual operetta next Thursday and Friday evenings, March 22 and 23, at 8 o'clock in the Don gym. This year's cast is putting the finishing touches on one of the most popular musicals of the late 1920's, "Rio Rita."

Included in the cast are Val Geissler, Donald Babcock, Kirk Barnette. Andrea Everett, David Pitkin, Edward Butler, William Ward, Gary Williamson, Jo Ann Musante, Beth Johnson, Marlowe Boyd, Kathy Wilson, Stephan Syverud, Allen Antons, Janice Guldenzopf and Morgan Jellet.

The production, featuring the school orchestra and chorus and a production staff of more than 100 students, is under the direction of Richard Hansen, Acalanes music instructor.

According to Beth Johnson, female lead in the show, "Rio Rita" should provide "some nostalgic moments for those in the general public who might have been avid theater or movie goers in the late 1920's and early 1930's."

The musical, which is filled with flappers, gringos, fiestas and Spanish dancing girls, is often remembered for its hit tunes, "Sweetheart," "Rio Rita," "Spanish Shawl" and "Ranger's Chorus."

The general public is invited. Tickets will be sold at the door at both performances, $1 for adults, 75 cents for students.

Jewish Appeal Conference Will be Sunday

Community leaders of 15 cities of Northern and Central California were named today to the Sponsoring Committee of the annual Regional Conference of the United Jewish Appeal, to be held Sunday, at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley, it was announced by Benjamin H. Swig of San Francisco, conference chairman.

Principal speakers at the Conference will be William Winter, ABC News Analyst and Foreign Correspondent, and Lt. Col. Ruth Berman, heroic veteran of Israel's Defense Forces, who will report on the tense and ominous developments affecting the freedom of Israel's people and the 350,000 Jews of Morocco and Tunisia and the vital role of the UJA in the present emergency.

Homebuilding Problems Told To Contractors

Cooperation of all segments of American governmental and public bodies was urged last night at a meeting of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County at the El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette.

Means of solving the problem of community facilities was discussed by Earl W. Smith, El Cerrito, immediate past president of the National Association of Home Builders.

According to Smith, American ingenuity could develop some method of providing adequate school facilities and to meet the needs of flood control and drainage, sanitary and recreational facilities.

"Lack of such facilities is resulting in an inability of the subdivider and homebuilder to provide housing for a large segment of the public," he asserted. "This problem is one in which the entire nation is involved and has resulted from inadequate consideration of the needs of such facilities in the past," he said.

Speaking in regard to the mortgage finance picture for 1956, Smith said that in his opinion the government's controls on credit were adopted as if the homebuilding industry could turn its production on and off like a faucet.

"To the best of my ability I have attempted to convince the administration that a lag of at least 6 months of necessity exists between the time a builder plans a contemplated project and the time when sales may be made. Recognition of this basic fact is essential if the homebuilding industry during 1956 is to construct the 1,200,000 homes which Al Cole, Housing and Home Financial Commissioner, has stated to be the Administration's housing goal for 1956."

WC JayCeetes Plan 'Tasty' Party Tonight

Walnut Creek JayCeettes will be hostesses to neighboring Junior Chamber of Commerce delegations from Orinda, Lafayette, Concord, Pittsburg, Martinez, Pleasant Hill and Danville in a wine-tasting party tonight at 7:30 in the Hotel Claremont, Berkeley.

Walnut Creek members and their wives who will attend include Harry Kindorfs, Donald Shaws, Paul Matthew, Eldon Dickenson, Cecil Asman, Tom Clarke, William Kendrick, Byron Whealan, Arthur Bouterious.

Cliff Davis, Robert Nagy, Robert Seibert, Pal Sullivan, Van Williams, Willard Stone, Fred Sanders, Harold Turner and Leslie Perry.

Present will be Lee Nave and Donald Campbell, and guests.

The JayCettes met recently at the home of Mrs. Baxter Kimbrough, 361 Cordelia Way, Walnut Creek. New members inducted were Dorothy Hungerford, Lou Ann Covert, Shirley Kass, Betty Seibert and Marge Kindorf.

Jack Pedder Will Lead 1956 Crusade

Jack Pedder, Lafayette business man, was elected president of the Diablo Valley United Crusade Cabinet at the organization's third annual meeting held March 8 at the P.G.&E. building in Walnut Creek.

Pedder was 1955 vice-president of the Cabinet, and one of the charter members of the local advisory board. He has rendered valuable service to the Crusade over its four year history, functioning on campaign, public relations and budgeting committees, say officials.

Serving with Pedder will be Don Nesbitt, administrator of Kaiser Foundation Hospital, Walnut Creek, as vice-president, and Mrs. Norman Cunningham, Orinda, as secretary-treasurer.

Retiring president George Conner presented the annual report which showed Diablo Valley in first place among the 12 communities which make up the East Bay United Fund. A total of $40,634 was raised by all departments of the campaign, representing 108.9 per cent of the goal, an increase of 28.9 per cent over 1954 production.

Conner reported a total allocation to local agencies from the United Bay Area Crusade of $57,965.00, an increase of 12 per cent over the previous year.

In appointing Mrs. Leonard Ford of Lafayette chairman of the Membership Committee for 1956, President Pedder stated, "Membership in the Diablo Valley Cabinet of the United Crusade should be increased. I hope that all civic organizations will recognize the fact this Cabinet is a community undertaking; that they have a right to a seat on that Cabinet and will exercise that right."

Pedder concluded the meeting with the appointment of J. P. Gustafson of Walnut Creek, and Eugene Williams, Walnut Creek, as chairman and vice-chairman respectively of the Budget, Admissions and Allocations Committee.

Your Swim Pool Means Enjoyment – Here Are Basic Things to Consider . . .

Love that pool! Who wouldn't? A swimming pool makes your home, this year and every year, the grandest-of-all vacation spots.

To kids, a pool is a special sort of heaven — the nicest thing that can happen to a back yard . . . your back yard.

A SWIMMING POOL is a good investment in health and happiness, an investment that adds to the beauty of your garden and increases the resale value of your property.

A good swimming pool is easy to maintain, inexpensive to own and fun to live with.

But, before you buy and pool at any price, you ought to know what to look for.

THERE ARE THREE basic things to look for in a swimming pool. They are:

The pool structure.
The filter system.
The pool interior finish.

PRIMARILY, the success of your swimming pool depends upon these three, for in these three nothing less than the best is good enough.

You can, if you wish, economize on such items as the diving board, ladder or light, and you can do with walks and trim that are not the last word.

Some of these can be omitted or added later, and any of them can be replaced at comparatively small cost.

BUT IF the pool structure itself is unsound, if the filter fails to operate properly or if it requires constant repairs and if the interior finish of the pool is so rough it scrapes the skin off your feet, you are faced with an expensive and often impossible problem.

Christian Science

That relying on material rather than spiritual power is idolatry will be stressed at services this Sunday in Church of Christ, Scientist, at 22 Orinda iHghway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" is the Golden Text from Isaiah (42:8): "I am the lord: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (277:29): "Nothing we can say or believe regarding matter is immortal, for matter is temporal and is therefore a mortal phenomenon, a human concept, sometimes beautiful, always erroneous."

The following is among the passages to be read from the Bible (Isaiah 44:9): "They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed."

NO PARKING LIGHTS

A new law prohibits use of parking lights when driving on street or highway, except when they are used as signal lamps. In other words, when dusk falls, turn on your headlights, not your parking lights.

Kings Offers Hawaii Days

Approximately 1350 persons walked away from the three Kings Food Center Stores this past week with prizes garnered from the Kings Treasure Chest.

Lucky keys gave customers free with no purchase necessary fry cookers, kitchen appliances, knife sets, wall pictures, dust pans, plastic aprons and scores of other prizes.

Each store had approximately 1000 keys of which 450 would open the Treasure Chest.

THE HAWAIIAN festivities are now under way at Kings Stores; Kings, Lafayette; Kings, Pleasant Hill, and Black's Market, Orinda.

Friday a Hawaiian Luau, with roast pig, and all the trimmings will be at each store, Moana of Harry Owens' Royal Hawaiian Orchestra will appear Friday and Saturday. Leis and other Hawaiian decorations will be on tap all week.

GRAND PRIZE of the week will be a trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

The trip for two will include flight both ways by Pan American Airways; a week stay at the Reef Hotel on Waikiki Beach and tours of Oahu and Mount Tantalus and a Pearl Harbor cruise.

Also included in the trip is a Luau, other entertainment and expenses paid for meals and souvenir shopping.

THE HAWAIIAN trip can be taken by the winner anytime during 1956.

Norm Ironside, co-owner of Kings, expressed thanks to the many patrons of the stores that are helping make the second anniversary celebration the biggest event in Kings history.

Winners of the Hawaii trip will be announced Sunday.

40 & 8 Seeks Contra Costa Industry Queen

Selection of entries for the Contra Costa County "Queen of Industry" program is now under way in this area. Committee members will be calling upon the various places of business throughout the area to select and qualify entrants.

The Queen of Industry, as the most industrious contestant will be known, will be awarded an elaborate vacation trip to Honolulu by air. With her crown and award she will also be presented a beautiful trophy. The place of business sponsoring Her Majesty, Queen of Industry, will be awarded a permanent plaque.

This program is produced by Contra Costa County Voiture 573, 40 et 8 Society to raise funds for underprivileged children and nurses training, and the proceeds will be raised through the sale of vote tickets by and for every girl in contest.

The Queen of Industry will be crowned at the Coronation Ball being held at the Armory in Concord, April 28.

Clifton Cary, announced committee members include Virgil McCall, Walnut Creek; Harley Leibann, Danville.

Mental Health Group Confers At Brooks Home

A monthly board meeting of the Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association was recently held in the Pleasant Hill home of Mrs. Richard Brooks, who represented the board at the annual meeting of the Northern California Association held in San Francisco.

At that meeting it was announced that the San Francisco, attorney Irving S. Rosenblatt, Jr. was elected president of the Northern California Association.

THE SERVICE PROJECT Committee headed by Mrs. Hans Wendel announced that the Mental Health group will establish an office at 1415 Pine Street, Walnut Creek. The office space is being made available by the Diablo Unitarian Fellowship.

It is hoped that the office will be opened April 2 for use and that an open house event will be held during National Mental Health Week, April 29 - May 5.

The Association will still maintain the mailing address of P. O. Box 89, Walnut Creek.

The program committee is starting an active schedule for members. It was announced that a monthly meeting the third Thursday of every month is to be held. It is hoped that at these meetings current Mental Health films will be previewed.

NOMINATING Committee members are: Richard Lininger, M. D., Orinda, Yoshiyi Togasaki, M.D. of Lafayette, Franz Wasserman, M.D. of Walnut Creek. The new officers will be elected at the annual dinner in June.

Officers present were Walton Kirk, president, Mrs. Lloyd Richards, secretary, Warren Ketterer, M.D., treasurer Mrs. William Reich, Alan Ory, M.D., Yoshiyi Togasaki, M.D., and Richard Lininger, M.D. Association members attending were Mrs. Richard Brooks, Mrs. E. Metzgar, Mrs. Hans Wendel and Mrs. Michael Ross.

The next meeting will be held at 1314 Pine St. Walnut Creek, April 5.

Fine Weekend Weather Draws Skiers to Slopes

By VI WHITE

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Brody spent several days skiing at various resorts along Highway 40 and near Lake Tahoe. They stayed at the Oakland Ski Club lodge one night and at a cabin near Tahoe City the rest of the time.

Sun Valley, Idaho, has called another skiier from Walnut Creek; Lloyd King who is manager of the Berkeley Savings and Loan Association's Walnut Creek office.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Montague of Cindy Court went to Dodge Ridge Sunday and were amazed at how well their childlen handled themselves on skis. Four year old Mike learned to side step up the slope and skied down without falling. Little Bill, 2½ years old, kept up with his brother and gave camera fans a thrill.

A second annual neighborhood ski trip was held last weekend at the Kaleva Ski Club Lodge on Highway 50.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ringbom and the Pat Byrnes from Barnett Circle; Messrs. and Mesdames Jack Weldon, Dewey Clauson, and Bob Holm from Vickie Lane; Ralph Depuy from Zelma Ct. Frank Beeson of Berkeley, Bob Parker of Tahoe Valley, Wally Decker of Sierra Vista in Danville, Hazel Mettnecht of Yorkshire Ct. Lafayette, Bill Fergerson of Vessing Ln. and Clark Eddy of Sacramento, formerly of Walnut Creek, were the group who enjoyed themselves at the comfortable lodge.

They report that the skiing was very good Saturday at Edelweiss but due to icy conditions Sunday very few were seen on the slope that day.

They all had such a wonderful time last year that they had decided to make it an annual affair.

Perhaps other neighborhoods would enjoy doing the very same thing.

John Shilich of Meadow Lane joined others from the Moore Business Forms Co. who spent a lively weekend at Highway 50 too. He also skied at Edelweiss.

The Oakland Ski Club is holding it's annual Club Races this weekend at the Sugar Bowl slopes. Competition is keen within the club and its members are looking forward to a gala time.

Dodge Ridge was the slope chosen by the R. H. Lockey Family of Lafayette last weekend. They acquired nice sun tans proving that spring skiing is upon us. Mr. and Mrs. Lockey were using their new ski boots, gifts to each other on their 20th wedding anniversary last Valentines Day.

County Costs Revealed by Taxpayers

A resume of costs in the operation of Contra Costa County for the year which ended last July was presented this week in a newsletter by the County Taxpayers Association.

It was as follows:

"A total of $27,841,130 was received to operate government of Contra Costa County (including county special district).

"The bulk of this money, $16,140,690, came from property taxes and assessments, although subventions and grants from the state and federal governments amounted to $8,834,423.

"Other sources of revenue were: licenses and permits, $8,384; fines and penalties, $300,299; privileges of franchise fees, $51,453; rent of property, $1,777; interest, $98,097; fees and commissions, $598,327; special services rendered, $307,934; sale of property, $77,234; and miscellaneous, $1,423,112.

"This revenue was spent in the following manner: general government, $3,518,509; protection to persons and property, $3,343,487; health and sanitation, $2,799,992; highways and bridges, $2,697,382; recreation, $120,848; charities and corrections, $11,401,826; education, $406,505; payment of interest on debt, $476,323; payment of redemption on debt, $1,200,034; and miscellaneous, $2,214,822."

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

New Short Term Offered by Army

High school seniors who wish information on the new short term active military service offered through the United States Army Reserve are requested to contact Captain Kenneth K. Renwick of the 91st Infantry Division, Contra Costa representative, at 10 Bobolink Road in Orinda.

Captain Renwick, a battery commander in the 916th Field Artillery batallion, is qualified to supply 17 to 18½ year olds with material relative to the new Army program.

Under the new provisions, a six month period of active military service in the United States, plus seven and a half years' paid reserve duty, can replace the two-year military obligation.

Formulated to align military assignment with civilian vocation, the Reserve Forces Act now will enable the high school senior to gradaute in December, enter the Army in January, and complete his active military service before enrolling at a university in the Fall.

"Graduating seniors often enter college with no real aim in view," said Captain Renwick. "Uncertain as to where their real talents lie, they are unable to take advantage of all the university has to offer, and are prone to wander unhappily from course to course until presently the four years are up, and the choice of a life's work is still to be made," he continued.

"Six months' service for one's country, under masculine discipline, at a post not too far from home, can be of inestimable value in developing ambition, poise, and discernment in the choice of career or companions," he concluded.

Captain Renwick may be reached at Clifford 4-5468.

Parents' inquiries are welcome.

Pi Beta Phi Plans Show

The Pi Beta Phi Mothers Club will have its annual spring fashion show luncheon on April 10 at the chapter house on Piedmont Avenue in Berkeley. Mrs. Fred Seulberger of Happy Valley is co-chairman with Mrs. H. W. Hickman of Ross. Mrs. Jack Jansse of Orinda is in charge of the models, who will be chosen from the active chapter.

Kay Mickle of Lafayette, and Ann Cianciarula of Orinda will be among those modeling. Mrs. Paul Johannson of Lafayette is in charge of reservations.

Plans for New Setup Studied By Committee

High school swimming got a preview on league strength Wednesday when the Diablo Valley Athletic League Relays were held at Las Lomas.

Every event was in the form of a relay, and a look at the results gives pretty much of a picture of all-around strength at this stage of the sport.

Not all schools in the league take part in swimming.

Pittsburg and Antioch have not taken part. Antioch did, but dropped out several years back.

Chances are that the league will be split before all area schools take part in swimming competition.

Diablo will open a new plant over Ygnacio Valley way before too long, and plans another plant at Pacheco and a third new one at Clayton Valley.

MIRAMONTE will enter into the varsity field in another year, so look for new league setup in the not-too-distant future.

The principals composing the Board of Managers have an active committee working on the new setup.

The board, in a recent meeting, came up with a number of favorable rulings, as far as the coaches were concerned.

IT RULED THAT practice in any sport could start at the beginning of the semester in which the activity is played. Basketball, for example, can begin when school opens in the fall, as opposed to a November starting time, while all spring sports can start in February.

Basketball was also given a 20-game schedule, up from 17, and in addition Cee and Dee classification ball is permitted in the fall on a free lance basis.

The board's decisions were most favorably received by the coaches, who felt that the liberalizing of what many have felt to be excessive restrictions was definitely a step forward.

PERPETUAL TROPHIES are also being considered, along with individual awards, to go to the schools.

The idea was presented to the coaches with proposals to go back to the board via Coach George De Klotz of Las Lomas, who is head of the coaches' group.

Dons Defeated By Gauchos, 9-1

The Acalanes varsity baseball team opened its practice season March 8 and when the last ball had been thrown the Dons found themselves on the short end of a 9-1 count, with the El Cerrito Gauchos the winners.

The game, played at El Cerrito, found the Dons taking a first inning lead when Louis Marello leadoff with a walk, reached third on two bunted balls and came home on a squeeze bunt by Jim Dinkel.

That was the end of the Acalanes scoring, however. El Cerrito scored a run in the second to tie it up, wrapped up three runs in the third to take a 4-1 lead, and was never headed.

The Dons collected but three hits to El Cerrito's 11.

Dons Cop Four-Way Track Meet

The Acalanes Dons made their track debut last Friday afternoon in a four-way meet held at Acalanes a most successful one when they ran off with first in both varsity and Bee competition.

The meet, held at Acalanes, found San Ramon, Hayward and Miramonte as the guest schools.

FINAL SCORES in the varsity division found Acalanes totaling 76 points, San Ramon 39 and Hayward 26.

IN THE BEE division the Don Babes had 70, Hayward 31½, Miramonte 25 and San Ramon 13½.

The meet produced some excellent performances for so early in the season. Several marks were particularly outstanding.

In the Bee division, Dixon Farmer of Miramonte was a standout as he took the 330-yard dash in 38.1, copped the broad jump with a leap of 17 feet, 11 inches, and set an outstanding mark in the high jump clearing the bar at 5 feet 10 inches, which is better than the North Coast Section record.

IN ADDITION, he ran a lap on the relay team that took second.

Farmer's performance was the outstanding one in any meet in Northern California to date.

Another outstanding performance was that of sophomore Dave Bojarshy of Acalanes in the Bee 660-yard run. Bojarsky, running for the first time, set a new record of 1:29.5.

Bob Marello of the Don frosh took a pair of firsts when he stopped the clocks at 08.4 in the 75-yard dash and at 16.4 in the 150-yard event.

IN THE VARSITY events, Junior Larry Pilcher was a standout for the Dons. with three firsts.

Larry rambled a fast 440-yard dash, taking the event with a fast 50.7, then took the field in the 220-yard event with a good :23.2.

In the broad jump he sailed 20 feet, 3 inches, to take the blue ribbon.

Volunteer Group Points to Job

Here's an interesting community service job for someone who likes office work, according to the Volunteer Bureau.

A national agency needs a receptionist for the office in Walnut Creek. One morning a week is all that is needed, and experience or not in telephone work and some typing.

For further details, interested volunteers may call the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek area, YE 4-0424 mornings, Monday through Friday from 9-12, or drop in at 1640 Main Street, Walnut Creek.

P. Conway Seeks Acalanes Post

A third candidate has filed for one of two trustee posts in the Acalanes Union High School District, County Superintendent B.O. Wilson reported today.

Wilson said Patrick F. Conway, 11 Gladys Court, Walnut Creek, has added his candidacy to those of the incumbents, Ralph C. Hall and M. H. Stanley.

Filing deadline is April 18. The annual trustee election will be held May 18 in all school districts. A county-wide election will be held at the same time to select a new County Board of Education of seven members, representing seven areas. One candidate has filed—Samuel Bradbard, Pleasant Hill attorney, in Area 4.

Member of Early Area Family Dies

Rites were held February 29 for Mrs. Ethel May Crow of Concord, member of a pioneer Lafayette family.

Mrs. Crow, who died February 25, and her husband, the late Henry Crow, owned what is now Hidden Valley Estates property.

Her father, the late Peter Thompson, came to Lafayette from Canada in 1854.

Miramonte Makes Mark

Miramonte High in Orinda is a new school but it has already made its mark in an athletic way with what appears to be one of the best frosh classes ever to come out of the Orinda grammar schools.

Coach Bob Callan has done an outstanding job, and his principal. James Lewis, has been vitally interested in athletics.

THE MIRAMONTE Matadors are certain to hit the athletic headlines often as they grow from their present frosh class.

One of the most promising athletes to come along in a long time is Miramonte's Dixon Farmer.

Last week he leaped 5 feet, 10 inches in the Bee high jump which is 2 inches better than the North Coast mark—held, incidentally, by Mike White, an ex-Don.

FARMER EXCELS in whatever event he participates, winning three firsts last week.

It will be interesting to watch his growth and development. The area has produced many fine athletes and it looks as if a new one is looming on the horizon.

Drive carefully—save a life.

Baldwin Picks Howard to Head His Campaign

Congressman John F. Baldwin of Martinez today announced the appointment of Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek as general chairman for Baldwin's Congressional campaign.

Howard lives at 2373 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek. He is married and has three children. Howard has lived in Walnut Creek since 1920, having graduated from the Walnut Creek Elementary School and the Mount Diablo Union High School. He obtained a B.S. Degree from Stanford University in 1937, and an M.B.A. Degree from Stanford in 1939.

He served in the Navy for five years during World War II, twenty months of which were in the South Pacific. He is at present secretary-treasurer of the Howard Terminal in Oakland.

Howard has been a member of the Walnut Creek School Board since 1952, and has served as Chairman of the Board since 1954. He has been active in Community Chest and Red Cross campaigns, was president of Junior Achievement of East Bay for 1955-56, and was chairman of the Contra Costa County Republican Central Committee from 1952 to 1954.

Fashion Show Set By Theta Upsilon

More than two hundred members and guests of the East Bay Alumnae of Theta Upsilon will preview the Easter parade at a fashion show and luncheon tomorrow at El Nido Rancho in Lafayette.

An Irish theme will be carried out in decorations and in the menu.

Among Theta Upsilon alumnae in Contra Costa County who have made reservations are Mesdames Jay Abernathy, W. R. Sommer, and Shirley Peakes of Lafayette; Earl Spotswood, George Nelson, Robert Wales, and Michael Putnam of Concord; Clarence Barnes and Jack Samper of Walnut Creek; and George Kimball of Danville.

The fashion show is being presented by Hill 'N Dale of Lafayette under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Peebles. Among the models who have been selected from the alumnae, the active chapter at the University of California, and the mothers' club are Mesdames Paul Kalff, William Siefker, Howard Pence of Lafayette, and Edmond Chambers of Walnut Creek.

The proceeds from the party will go to the Theta Upsilon Alumnae Fund for the support of Berea College in Kentucky and Navajo Assistance, Inc., the philanthropic projects of the sorority.

Local Realtors Attend Meeting

A large delegation from the Contra Costa Real Estate Board attended a California Real Estate Association meeting in Santa Rosa last Friday and Saturday.

They included Barney Gilbert, president, Buck Johnson, Bill Anderson, M. H. Binker, Frank Curtis, Vera Foss, Harlan Geldermann, King Parker, Al Ingalls and Wayne Bailey.

Sherry Boyenger Wins Pacific Opera Co. Role

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steven entertained at a reception, following a dance performance of Miss Sherry Boyenger with the Pacific Opera Company in San Francisco. Mrs. Steven, Sherry's teacher, recommended her to W. Lathrop, choreographer of the Opera Company, resulting in her selection as one of the seven dancers in "La Traviata."

Sherry, who is a junior at Pleasant Hill High School has made many local appearances in dance numbers. She lives on Betty Lane, Gregory Gardens, with her mother, Mrs. Ruth Boyenger, and sister, Barbara.

Sherry has been studying with Mrs. Steven, and Vicki Eastman. She plans to go to New York this summer for more extensive studies, and hopes to dance in musical productions such as "Oklahoma."

Pixie Promenade Dee Zee Theme

Because it falls on St. Patrick's Day, "Pixie Promenade" is the theme chosen for this year's Delta Zeta alumnae spring luncheon and fashion show.

The event tomorrow, which is expected to draw some 300 members and guests, will be held at the Mira Vista Country Club, in Richmond, at 1 p.m., and proceeds will go to the sororitys' Hearing Helps philanthropy.

Sponsor of the event is the Beta group of Delta Zeta's Bay Cities Alumnae Chapter and Mrs. Robert Page is serving as general chairman.

Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Lafayette, who is serving as model chairman, has just completed her mannequin roster of Delta Zeta alumnae and their children, and members of the U.C. campus chapter. Two other Lafayette women are also taking an active part in the affair — Mrs. James Turre is furnishing the music and Mrs. John Burgess is handling the publicity.

Newlyweds at Home in WC

At home at 1939 Shuey Avenue, Walnut Creek, are the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Larree A. Phelan, who just returned from a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara.

The former Miss Nancy M. Ricetti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aldo F. Ricetti Sr., of 3989 Concord Boulevard, Concord, and Larree A. Phelan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delton Phelan of Redwood Road Castro Valley, exchanged wedding vows February 12, at the Queen of All Saints Church in Concord, with Father Lawrence Hennessey officiating.

DVAL Goes Into Full Week's Play

The Diablo Valley Athletic League really swings into a full week of sports, with a full slate of contests on hand for the spring sport fans.

Baseball goes into league play starting with Tuesday's play, as does tennis. Track, golf and swimming are still in the warmup stage, waiting for the county competition that lies ahead.

In swimming the big one is probably the Acalanes-Cal frosh meet slated for the Dons' pool next Tuesday.

The Contra Costa All-Stars meet the Cal frosh in the Berkeley pool next Thursday.

Schedule for the week is as follows:

TODAY: Track finds Diablo, Pleasant Hill and Las Lomas in a 3:30 meet at Diablo. The Devils figure to win this one, due to depth and all-around strength.

In track, Acalanes faces a toughie in Encinal at Alameda at 3:30. The Dons surprised in their first outing. Rate this one a tossup.

BASEBALL: It's Las Lomas at home, with John Swett of Crockett. Favorites are the Swett Indians, who look to have a heavy-hitting club. Starting time is 3:30.

SWIMMING: Las Lomas paddlers are favored to defeat El Cerrito in the El Cerrito pool. The Knights are really working at the aquatic sport and figure to develop into a power.

MONDAY: Golf — The Don divot diggers play Diablo at the Contra Costa Country Club.

TUESDAY: League baseball and tennis start. Schedules are the same. Contests start at 4 p.m.

It's Acalanes at Diablo. Tennis and baseball appear to be a toss-up. Diablo, under a new baseball coach, has had a time choosing from a turnout of more than 100.

Pleasant Hill, favored to win, faces the Pittsburg Pirates at Pittsburg. Ram Coach Lyle Palmer has all-around veteran strength and good pitching. Chalk up a Ram win. In tennis it's the Rams.

Pacifica draws a bye.

WEDNESDAY: Pleasant Hill swimmers hold an interclass meet at Las Lomas at 3:30.

THURSDAY: Contra Costa All-Star swimmers versus Cal frosh at Berkeley, 3:30. All-Stars to win this one, paced by the likes of George Harrison and Corky Kiesel of Acalanes.

Baseball and tennis find Diablo at Antioch. The Devils to win in both.

Pittsburg to notch wins in both over Pacifica, while Acalanes draws the bye.

NEXT FRIDAY: Las Lomas swimmers to win over Oakland High at Oakland in a 3:30 p.m. meet.

Track in 3:30 p.m. meets finds Antioch and Las Lomas at Las Lomas in a tossup.

Pleasant Hill figures to cop a dual meet with Livermore at Livermore while Pittsburg rates the top role in a meet with the Dons at Acalanes.

Golf rounds out a busy week, with Acalanes meeting the Richmond Oilers at Richmond. Give the Dons the edge, give or take a few strokes.

Towhee Members Plan St. Pat's Dance Tomorrow

Preparing for the "wearin' of the Green" are towhee members and their husbands, who plan a St. Patrick's party tomorrow.

The festivities will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Priewe, Danville.

Heading a committee is Mrs. Frank Cashin, who will be assisted by Mrs. Philip Knox Jr., and Mrs. Donald Priewe.

First Mass Meeting Draws Huge Turnout of Boys

By MEL ALAMANO

A huge turnout by boys for the youth baseball program last Saturday showed indications of the interest for this year.

The Coast League, 8½ through 10 years of age, met at 10:30 a.m. and Gord McNulty, league chairman, reported more boys came than were expected.

The boys received instructions on the coming program and with his group of interested dads, handled things very well. Many Lafayette youngsters appeared and Gord and his committee will solve this situation so that these boys can also play.

THIS AGE GROUP will be given close supervision as this marks many of the lads' first venture into organized play. It will call for plenty of cooperation and many hours of work.

The National League groups, 11 through 13 years of age, met at 12:30 p.m. and the commissioner, yours truly, explained the league plans.

The new boys coming into the leagues were given an outline of the program and welcomed into the groups.

Sign-up slips must be turned in during the next two weeks. This is important as clubs will be put together and in fairness to all concerned, including the coaches, a count must be taken and money raised to sponsor the huge program.

MONDAY NIGHT at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center dads and even fellows who have no boys showed up to be assigned to teams. These gentlemen, along with Bob Maxey and the league committee set rules and plans for team play.

Attending were Capt. Schatz, Red Jones, Red Gillham, Jim Nankivell, Marion Stephenson, Paul Freeman, Vince Graziano, Mr. Bradford, Mr. Bertonoli, Merv O'Donnell, Bev Wilder, Duncan Odum, Scotty Remy, Cliff Dahlgren and Bob Loane of Maple Towne Furniture, who announced that he will sponsor a team. Loane played plenty of pro baseball in the Pacific Coast League, as well as for the majors.

Mr. Van Horn of Van Horn Motors also offered a sponsorship and was happy to do his part for the boys. Norm Robinson of Robinson Chevron Station has also come forth to sponsor a club.

TOMORROW AT 10 a.m. the Coast League Clinic under Gord McNulty, Ed Schimbor and Al Steele will hold a clinic and attempt to place boys on teams.

At 12:30 p.m. the National League will hold its clinic. All sessions will be at the recreation center. The 14 and 15 year-old boys who met last week will be under the supervision of Jim Nankivell at the afternoon session.

This group will be small until the high school teams are picked, then more boys will join. This will help the boys who need more experience for high school play anl also will give them a chance for some fun.

We all want to help this age group and will do so if interest is shown. Sign-up slips are still available at the rec. center and Sports and Games on Locust Street.

Livermore Nine Whips Acalanes By 9-5 Score

The Acalanes Don varsity baseball team traveled to Livermore Tuesday afternoon and dropped the decision by losing 9-5.

This all happened in the top of the first inning. The Don's lead was short lived, however, when Livermore came back to score 5 runs on five hits in the bottom half of the first.

STEVE JORDAN was on the mound for the Dons and settled down when he allowed but two hits and one run in the next three frames.

The Dons were back in the ball game when they scored 4 runs on four safe blows in the fifth.

Big blows of the inning were a triple off the bat of Gordon Napolitano with the bases loaded and an over-the-centerfield fence home run by Steve Jordan.

Gary Hansen took over the mound duty for the Dons in the bottom of the fifth, and while he allowed but one hit and struck out two, a pair of errors enabled the Livermore Cowboys to win 9-6.

In the final canto neither club scored. Mike Barrett hurled for the Dons, to close out the game by whiffing two and allowing one hit.

Each club had nine hits but the Dons committed four errors to Livermore's two.

Napolitano led the Don stickers with a triple and single in two trips to the plate, while Jim Dinkel had two for three, with a single and a double.

Ram Baseball Team Trounces Amador, 8-1

The Pleasant Hill Rams' baseball team opened its practice season March 8 with a bang when the Rams used a host of players to cop a nifty 8-1 win over Amador High of Pleasanton.

The game, played at Pleasanton, found Coach Lyle Palmer, Ram mentor, using 25 players in notching the win and living up to the pre-season dope which tabs the Rams as definite pennant contenders.

Coach Palmer used three pitchers in winning , with veteran right-hander Ray Johansen going the first three frames, Mike Mayne going the next two cantos and Al Locatelli closing out the final two frames of the 7-inning game.

THE RAMS scored two in the first and then went on a 6-run splurge in the second to ice the game.

Amador's lone score came in the second frame.

In the hit department the Rams had a big edge—10 to 2.

TOP STICKERS for the Pleasant Hill nine were Third Baseman Gary Scott, who had two doubles in two times at the plate, and Walt Robb, shortstop, who banged three safeties in four times, one good for a triple.

Outfielder Jim McMillin had two for three and drove in four runs.

Highlight of the pitching was the work of Locatelli, who struck out six in the final two innings.

Ram Nine Looks Plenty Tough!...

The Pleasant Hill Rams look to be in for a good season as far as the diamond sport is concerned.

Coach Lyle Palmer has a squad that rates top consideration, as the Rams have a host of returning veterans from a club that went down to the wire before losing to the Dons in last year's pennant race.

The few gaps left by graduation appear to be well-filled by transfers plus players up from last year's reserves, and on top of that, a promising freshman who may win a regular starting spot.

THE RAMS appear to have strength a field and at bat, plus a pitching staff that compares favorably with and maybe better than any in the county prep circle.

In the catching department it's nip and tuck between Steve Buckman (sr.) and Leon Lewis (sr.) a transfer student from Healdsburg.

In the throwing department Coach Palmer has a quartet that spells depth and strength. Heading the pack is Ray Johansen (sr), the big right-hander, who looks to be in for a good season.

Mike Maguire (sr.), a transfer from Las Lomas, looks good, as does Al Locatelli (jr.), a hard-throwing left-hander. Bill Brogger (sr.) is another promising prospect for mound duty.

AT FIRST BASE Bill Locatelli looms as a starter. Bill is a freshman but has shown ability to such an extent that he rates number 1 at the initial sack.

The Rams finished in the top division last season and hardly figure to be out of it this year.

In fact, they rate as the team to beat at this stage of the game.

Delegation Has Local Residents

Background information on the six residents of the Sixth Congressional District who have been chosen as members of the Stevenson-for-President delegation, was provided today by Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, who will head the delegation.

The Sixth District includes the counties of Contra Costa and Solano. Included are Archibald B. Allison, delegate from Walnut Creek, and Staff Representative, Sub-District 3, United Steelworkers of America; Richard Graves of Lafayette, Democratic candidate for governor of California in 1954, and head of a group of business and industrial developers.

Miramonte May Be Ready For Varsity Play in '57

LOOK FOR Miramonte High to get into regular competition as far as varsity sports go, in 1957.

They won't have seniors and won't have many students, but they have a good crop of frosh this year who show promise and will probably get their feet wet in varsity swimming competition in '57.

It is just a question of when Miramonte gets its own pool, but when they do, look for them to be a power.

The summer swim program in the Orinda area is a strong one, and it has enabled the Acalanes Dons up to now to cop county titles, one after the other.

I ATTENDED another baseball clinic under the sponsorship of the San Francisco Seals and found it to be instructive and outstanding in its presentation.

Each clinic brings out new ideals, as well as serving as a refresher on many points of the game.

It also brought home that different individuals have their own way of doing things and that there is no one right way.

In general, there are certain fundamental principles, but styles and methods vary with the individuals. In coaching, the important thing is to adapt sound principles to the abilitiies and strengths of the individuals involved.

I can vividly recall the case of a young pitcher I had at Acalanes in the not-too-distant past. He had a strong arm and a natural fast ball that really had a hop on it. His dad had been a pitcher and a good one, but he never had the arm the boy did and consequently relied more on "cute stuff."

He always insisted on the boy throwing as he did—and the boy never attained the success expected.

It's wrong to expect anyone to follow the exact pattern that duplicates someone else. Mental and physical assets vary, and so should styles.

Develop natural ability, and play down weaknesses. If a boy has a strong arm and a natural fast ball, it's the biggest asset in throwing that he can have.

If he doesn't, don't try to make a fast ball pitcher out of him, but work on pin-point control and change of pace.

Enough 'til next week!

Girl Scout Week Deserves a Salute!

Throughout Central Contra Costa County—as throughout the rest of America—the trim green uniform of Girl Scouts and the neat brown garb of Brownies are a vital and accepted part of community life.

Being observed this week is Girl Scout Week, in recognition of the 44th anniversary of the Girl Scout organization.

Girls and leaders of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council deserve a special salute and a special "thank you" for their many efforts.

Now in progress is the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale, a major fund-raising drive of the Girl Scouts. What better way to "celebrate" Girl Scout Week than to buy a box—or a few boxes—of these delicious cookies?

This year the cookies are offered in three distinctive flavors. And in our area, the Cookie Sales has a special purpose—proceeds will be used to complete payment on the purchase of the 65-acre Twin Canyon Camp on Springhill Road, Lafayette.

More adult leaders are needed, so that more girls in Central Contra Costa County can take advantage of the fine program offered by the Girl Scouts.

Aid The Red Cross!

This year more than ever, your Red Cross needs your help.

With a goal of $29,000, the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross is participating in the annual national Red Cross fund drive.

The financial campaign of the Red Cross is always deserving of support. In addition to disaster relief, the Red Cross in our area means swimming classes, first aid instruction and other community projects.

All this adds up to the urgent need for your support. It is important, too, to realize that the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the Red Cross is not part of the United Crusade.

What They Say

Do You Have The 'Fever?'

Spring will be here Wednesday and along with Spring comes a yearly malady known as Spring Fever.

To determine if this area is effected by the sudden arrival of warm days and birds on the wing with the usual breaking out of garden tools and scrub mops The Sun's roving reporter asked this question this week.

"The calendar says Spring is almost here. Are you subject to Spring Fever? Have you had Spring Fever yet this year and can you describe your symptoms?

MRS. C. LAWRENCE RAYMOND, 11 Valley View Drive Orinda said, "Oh yes, it is a roaming bug and I guess I have it right now. I feel like cleaning house and I suppose I have it every year, but I had Spring Fever a lot worse when I was younger."

Mrs. Charles E. Phillips, 36 Miner Road, Orinda, commented that "I'm certain that I have Spring fever. I've noticed a surge of energy in the direction of my golf game. I'm subject to it every year."

HARRIET HANSON, 3324 Victoria Avenue, Lafayette answered "Comes a little sunshine and we wonder what we can do around the house to fix things up a little bit. Our oldest daughter must really have Spring Fever because she goes out in the backyard to soak up that Spring sunshine.

Louise Dezzani of Bickerstaff Street, Lafayette said "Oh yes I have Spring Fever. When the weather gets so nice you just want to get out, go swimming or go on a picnic. I guess I'm getting energetic because I feel like playing tennis.

Mrs. W.H. Evans of 1691 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, a teacher, says that she'll be getting spring fever when the first sustained warm spell arrives.

"Not yet, but when it does come, I'll head for a spot in the sun for some reading."

Her pupils are of the Ygnacio Valley School.

"I DON'T get spring fever," said Danleigh Newgard of 403 Soule Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

He used to, until the age of 16 when he went to work. "But sometimes a glassful of beer will give that spring-fever effect," he added.

"I get it, but manage to avoid the worst effects by eating a lighter lunch, and getting plenty of fresh air, declared Deno Lenzi of 1861 Wedgewood Court, Pleasant Hill. He is an aircraft examiner in Alameda.

"WHEN THE fever hits, it just brings back memories of all that the things that didn't get done last year because of spring fever," confided William William Lee of 1837 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

"But, I'd guess that I'd regret it if I didn't have it each year. Its just part of life for most of us."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

To Our Girl Scout Friends

Bishop's Group Formally Seated

Members of the Bishop's Committee of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church were formally installed by the Rev. Albert Lucas, vicar, in a special ceremony during the 11 o'clock service at the church on Sunday.

Those who were installed to serve through 1956 are Walter E. Christie, Clinton Easterbrook, and Fred Evans. Appointed to serve through 1957 are Arthur Beers Johnson, who has also been appointed warden, Morris Browning, and Nelson Munson.

Serving through 1958 will be Ernest Fallentine, Kendric Morrish, and John Rands. Installed as clerk was James A. Brown, who retired as a Bishop's Committee member at the beginning of the year, but who was chosen by the committee to serve in this capacity.

Rush Party to Honor St. Pat.

Xi Delta Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has planned a Rush Party for all who qualify for membership in a Beta Sigma Phi Sorority chapter.

The party will be held tonight at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club with a St. Patrick's theme. The party, including cocktails and dancing, will be for husbands and wives. The ladies will be presented with the traditional green shamrocks and the gentlemen, paper hats. A midnight snack has been planned.

Letters to The Editor

CONGRATULATIONS
Dear Editor:

Congratulations on your recent achievement of having the best program of community relations and promotions through the publication of your newspaper.

We are indeed fortunate to have had this award presented to the publisher of our own home town newspaper.

As a resident and reader, I have always appreciated the fact that you give both sides on all issues when reporting in your paper.

May I wish you continued success.

Donald D. Doyle

EDITORIALS
Dear Editor:

Your editorial of March 2 titled "Its Time to Plan to Work Together" sent my spirits upward. Here was our community newspaper urging the residents of Orinda to follow the American Way and work together.

However, by the time I reached the last sentence of your editorial I was puzzled as to your interpretation of the American Way regarding the rezoning of the Pine Grove.

IS THE American Way to start appeasing the feelings of a few before the problem is settled, or should the majority opinion rule?

The Pine Grove question was considered so vital to the future of Orinda that the Board of the Orinda Association decided each adult resident should have the opportunity to stake his claim in the future of Orinda.

In the recent poll 3298 adults said they opposed the rezoning of the Pine Grove — in effect 3298 said they'd like to keep Orinda the community that it is.

ONLY 1460 favored the rezoning.

The Orinda Association, as well as the Chamber of Commerce that you mentioned, are now aware of the majority feeling among Orinda residents. Now is the time to put the American Way into effect. If we're going to plan to work together "let both organiaztions sincerely strive for the welfare of Orinda."

Now, not a few weeks from now, we should insist that our Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors act in accordance with the feelings of the majority in Orinda.

Stella M. Boyle

CONGRATULATIONS
Dear Editor:

I should like to take this opportunity to offer you my sincere congratulations on having been awarded the first-place plaque at recent annual convention of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

You must feel very honored and pleased to know that you publish such an outstanding newspaper.

If there is ever any way in which my office can be of assistance to you I certainly hope you will feel free to call upon me.

A wonderful plan, but costly

Unquestionably the most important news story of the week is the Stanford Research Institute's financial analysis of how the Bay Area can pay for the rapid transit system proposed last January by the engineering experts. I'm not going to discuss the details here because you will find them in the first section.

The plan is wonderful: you can ride from Pleasant Hill to 12th and Broadway, Oakland, in 21 minutes for 30 cents or from Orinda to Oakland in 10 minutes for 25 cents.

But the over-all cost of the plan is staggering. In 34 years, it would cost nearly 2 billion dollars. The Institute calmly reports this would average "only $18.50" per year per person for the next 34 years or only $630 per person.

Can we afford it?

Perhaps I feel pessimistic today but that "only $18.50" statement sounds worse than the 2 billion dollars. I am not criticizing the report or the plan. We must have it. I agree with the statement of the engineers:

"Without rapid transit the region will ultimately pay many times its cost in additional hours of travel time . . . in diminshed revenues from property depreciated by traffic congestion . . . in the premium costs of urban freeways and parking garages. We do not doubt that the Bay Area citizens can afford rapid transit; we question seriously whether they can afford not to have it."

This statement by the engineers is corroborated by the Stanford Research study, which says, "Financing of a rapid transit system is within the economic feasibility of the Bay Area."

Well, this is going to take a lot of study. It certainly is important to our commuting community and to you, so read all the facts and you, too, can become an expert.

Have you tried folk dancing?

I received a note from Mrs. John McKirahan about the beginners class in folk dancing to start in April at Acalanes High. She writes:

"Folk dancing is a wonderful hobby, clean and wholesome as well as a tonic for mental strain, which so many seem to suffer from in this fast and furious age. I could go on and on about the benefits. I have the desire to stir up enthusiasm so that others will experience the same fun and enjoyment that I have experienced since taking up folk dancing as a hobby."

The Sun will present several articles on folk dancing, written by Mrs. McKirahan.

Say, what do you know! Snoopy, the office cat, just received a greeting card signed by "Doopy Duck." The card shows a duck saying, 'Today's no special day, I know, but I just want to say hello."

The Sun says Hats Off

Today The Sun would like to say Hats Off to three separate groups:

TO THE AMERICAN LEGION which is celebrating its 37th anniversary. The outstanding work accomplished by this veterans' group is recognized and praised throughout the nation, as well as in our own area.

TO THE REALTORS AND THE CONTRA COSTA REAL ESTATE BOARD, which is observing Realtors Week. The Real Estate business is perhaps the most abused business in our area. A little is justified; most is not. I always like to remind the critics that you and I would not be living here today if the Realtors, developers and contractors did not precede us. The Realtors are doing a tremendous job in educating their members and the public. They offer a real service to the community.

TO THE GIRL SCOUTS — big and little, girls and women workers — on Girl Scout Week. Our sentiments are expressed in the editorial column.

Don't forget these meetings

Circle your calendar for the debate on the flood control bond issue. Sponsored by The Sun, it will be held Wednesday, March 28 at Acalanes High School gym, 8 p.m.

The Sun is also sponsoring a meeting at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center, April 2, for Walnut Creek city candidates and to discuss the Little Master Plan.

We are now completing details for a big election rally and meeting May 28 at the Acalanes High gym to present candidates for county, state and federal offices. Candidates please note.

Class Scheduled In Folk Dancing

A folk dance class for beginners will start April 9 at Acalanes High School, with Glenn and Reva Ward as instructors.

Tuition fee for the 8-10 p.m. class will depend on the number of people enrolled. Registrations are being accepted now at the Acalanes Adult Center office at Acalanes, Monday through Thursday evenings.

Letters to The Editor

ABOUT POLLS
Dear Editor:

About polls in Orinda — November 1954 an overwhelming majority of Orinda residents petitioned the Board of Supervisors to retain the present zoning of the Pine Grove area.

The Board of Supervisors voted that this petition be granted. One week later the Pine Grove area was sold to Pacific Intermountain Express, who through its spokesman admitted they had bought the land on a gamble . . .

JUNE 1955 the PIE asked the Orinda residents to vote on whether they wished a pretty garden type office building. This was not the real issue, the issue was one of rezoning. For this reason the Orinda Association elected to poll the residents on the real issue of rezoning.

PIE has claimed that its vote on its building was in favor, although they did not present their results for public inspection.

In February 1956 the Orinda Association took a poll on the true issue, whether the Pine Grove should be rezoned for private industry.

The people of Orinda again expressed their opinion that the area should not be rezoned. Three thousand two hundred and ninety eight citizens voted opposed to the PIE application for rezoning. Fourteen hundred and sixty voted in favor.

REALLY HUMMING are sales for "Food, Fun and Fashions Under the Big Top," the novel fashion show being prepared by the Hummingbirds, newest auxiliary unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. So Mrs. Robert Moore (second from right) and Mrs. Fred Angella (right), co-chairmen of the affair, urge you to get your tickets this coming week, if you haven't already done so, for the April 7 event at the Danville Hotel. Shown with them are, left to right, Mrs. Tom Bond, unit president, and two models who will display clothes from Alfred Nipkow of Walnut Creek—Mrs. Hadley Bacon and Jack Eriksson. Fashions from Irene Thies of Walnut Creek will also be shown.

County Shriners Plan Dinner Event Tomorrow

"The Wearing of the Green," tomorrow, is the first Contra Costa County Shrine Club program of the new year, announced President Earl Kestner, of Pittsbrug. The dinner event will be at the Pioneer Village, Lafayette, at 7 p.m.

John Wasson, Lafayette, will be chairman of the event which will be marked by contributions for Shrine Hospitals. Each Shriner will be asked to bring either a can of tomatoes or 50 cents for the hospital project.

Kestner added that the Contra Costa Shriners will participate in the Aahmes Temple's "Mardi Gras" fete in the Oakland Auditorium, March 24, when O. S. (Pop) Graham of Walnut Creek will serve as chairman of the Contra Costa delegation.

Patty Kupper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kupper, Walnut Creek, will compete for queen of the Mardi Gras event. Representing Contra Costa as king will be Pierre Vedel, Antioch, a student at East Contra Costa Junior College.

Howard G. Fahy of Concord has been named by Kestner as chairman of Public Schools Week committee during the week of April 23 - 27.

Plans are under way for the Thrid Annual Merrytime Breakfast May 6, at the Castlewood Country Club.

This spring sale is an annual affair and the event is looked forward to by participants in the entire county as well as people from the Hayward area.

Miss Kelly, Barrett Jones To Exchange Vows Sunday

On Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m., Miss Geraldine Helen Kelly and Barret W. Jones will exchange wedding vows at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, 1720 Oakland Boulevard, Walnut Creek, with Pastor, Rev. James C. Upshaw officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kelly, 351 Shady Glen Road, Walnut Creek,will wear a soft billowy white lace gown waltz length, with a pearl crown holding her finger length veil in place; and white satin slippers. She will carry a crescent designed bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley, baby white roses and baby pale pink roses with a center of white orchids. Her father will give her in marriage.

Miss Linda M. Uffens of Walnut Creek will serve as maid of honor, and will wear a cloud blue nylon silk dress waltz length, matching shoes and hat with a short veil, and will carry a bouquet of pale pink tulips with freezias.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Kelly, will wear an ice blue silk sheath dress, pale pink hat, and a pink corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Donald B. Jones of Pleasant Hill, will wear a navy blue and white silk dress with a white hat and roses in the back, and a double white orchid corsage.

The future benedict's brother, Douglas Jones of Pleasant Hill, will serve as best man; and ushers will be Robert Kelly, brother of the bride, and Edward Lawrence of Oakland.

A June 1955 graduate of Las Lomas High School, the bride was employed at the Toy Shop in Walnut Creek. The future benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Jones, 1637 Mary Drive, Pleasant Hill, is a 1954 graduate of Mt. Diablo High School, and a member of the U. S. Marine Corps presently assigned to Camp Pendleton. He served in the Korea theatre late in 1954, and was recently stationed in Alaska for six weeks.

PRETTY SHARP (whether or not the top-hatted gent is supposed to represent a card sharp) are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Caldwell in their costumes at the Lafayette Larks' "Mardi Gras" at the Claremont Hotel last Saturday night.

SPIDER AND FLY are symbolized by Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson, "carrying a torch." They tied with the Mel Nielsens for the "most original" rating at the affair.

"MOST HUMOROUS" costumes at the Larks' gay party were worn by Mr. and Mrs. James Findleton, representing an Easter egg and the Easter bunny.

"WILD INDIANS" seem bent on loping off beautiful ears of a lovely bunny! Among the merry-makers at the Larks' "Mardi Gras" were "Indians" Larry and Rita Lehrmann and "bunny" Mrs. Phil Springman.

—Sun photos by Mattson

THAT "ARAB SHEIK" (Teller Weinman) appreciatively eyes the "Gay 90's" dance hall gal (Shirlee Marchant), who won the rating for "most attractive" costume at the Larks' big event.

Larks Mardi Gras 'Wows Them All'

The night of the Larks Mardi Gras has come and gone but it will last as a very vivid memory to many for a long time to come. It was such a successful party that already people are counting on a repeat next year.

The affair got under way before the scheduled nine o'clock with every one arriving in costume and eager to get the festivities going. The costumes were such ice-breakers" that it wasn't long before the huge crowd felt at ease and at home with every one else.

The costumes ranged from the ridiculous to the sublime and from the authentic to the make believe. The judges had a very difficult task deciding the winners because there were so many outstanding ones to select from.

Every one was well pleased with their selection which was finally announced as:

The most humorous, Mr. and Ron Findleton as an Easter Egg and bunny; the most attractive, Mrs. Shirlee Marchant as a gay nineties dance hall girl, and Teller Weinmann as an Arab sheik, the most unique. Mr. and Mrs. Garry Grover as Mr. and Mrs. Peanut, the most original; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Nielsen as a pair of African witch doctors, and Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson as the Spider and the Fly.

Seen on the dance floor were those smooth dancers, Kay and Lou Fekete forgetting their folk dances and doing the more conventional steps and Sylvia and B. G. Grosso in their authentic Norwegian costumes doing a mean rhumba.

Larry and Rita Lehrmann in their authentic Indian dress doing a sedate fox-trot instead of the expected war dance. Dot Patterson, "The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing," cutting a few capers in spite of the swing.

Bill Snyder, the "exterminator of pests and wives," sprayin' one and all with a concoction straight from Mertons evil brews.

Mary Menzies looking cute as a pup in a very realistic Poodle Dog costume, Winnie Stanley acting very lively in spite of a dagger through her head and a nasty black eye. Catching many eyes were the beautiful King and Queen of Chess costumes worn by the Caldwells, Mary Jane and Ken, and bejeweled Bob and Margaret Gosch looking like something out of the Arabian Nights.

Much of the credit for the success of the evening goes to Kathy and Vit Vittaly, Barbara and George McAullife, Judy and Russ Fairburn and Libby and Ed Burger who gave up their evening to see that everything ran smoothly and that everyone else had a good time.

Doris Mortara To Wed Teacher

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mortara, 1091 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, announced the engagement of their daughter Doris Lee to John Lawrence Passalacqua of Healdsburg.

Doris is a 1951 graduate of Acalanes High School and a 1955 graduate of San Jose State College. She is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

DORIS MORTARA of Lafayette is the bride elect of John Passalacqua. A 1951 graduate of Acalanes High School, Doris is now a teacher in Healdsburg. Wedding plans of the couple are still indefinite.

John is a graduate of Santa Clara University and undertook post-graduate work at the University of San Francisco and University of California. He is now a language and social studies teacher.

Both are teachers in the Healdsburg area. Wedding plans are still indefinite.

Music Teachers To Lay Plans Tuesday Night

The next meeting of the Music Teacher's Association of Contra Costa County will be Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Josephine Shoptaugh in Lafayette.

At that time Inerz Barr, chairman, will tell of plans for the Charter Day luncheon, May 19. Mrs. Doris Marliave and Co-chairman Fred Freeman will tell more details of the Workshop Review to be held at Las Lomas High School on April 28.

The program will include Mrs. Frances Zerillo, soprano, past state president and member of Stanislaus County Branch accompanied by Miss Claire James, president of Golden Gate — San Francisco Branch.

Miss Indelicato Honored

A surprise kitchen shower was given to Miss Rose Marie Indelicato at the home of Mrs. Robert Muir Graves, 857 Hawthorne Drive, Walnut Creek.

The honoree, a teacher of the second grade at the Parkmead School, was a classmate of the hostess at the College of the Holy Name in Oakland, as were many of the guests. She was presented with many gifts including pots and pans for her future home, and refreshments were served.

Guests included Mrs. Lowell Clark of Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Robert Buckley of Lafayette; Miss Claudia Mattioda, Walnut Creek; the hostess' mother and grandmother, Mesdames Ernest E. Rowland and Herman Goelitz; Miss Ann Rowland, the hostess' sister; and the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Michael Indelicato.

The engagement of Miss Indelicato, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Indelicato of 21 Bradley Road, and Prima Facchini, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Facchini of Oakland, was announced a few months ago. A nuptial mass on June 23 at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Walnut Creek is planned by the young couple.

Maid of honor will be Mrs. Orlando Chizazini of Walnut Creek; with secondary attendants, Miss Mattioda and her fiance's sister, Miss Norma Facchini of Oakland. The bride-elect's brother, Sam, will serve as usher.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Acalanes High School and College of Holy Names in Oakland. A graduate of St. Joseph's College in Alameda, the future benedict served three years in the U.S. Army before working for Ladies Choice food company in Hayward.

Mrs. Nicholson Is Crestview Club Speaker

The Crestview Junior Woman's Club of Pleasant Hill had as a guest speaker February 28 Mrs. Barbara Nicholson, past president of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary.

Mrs. Nicholson talked on the part the Auxiliary plays in Juvenile Hall. She also suggested ways for every organization in the County to take an active interest in Juvenile Hall.

The club's choir under the direction of Mrs. Robert Henrickson has been perfecting several numbers. Their first performance was for the Crestview Senior Women's Club Wednesday.

They are also working on an arrangement of Swing Low for statewide competition in late May.

Eastern Star Courtesy Night Is Tomorrow

Fremont Story Will Be Told By Mrs. Bendel

"Fremont—Its Aspirations to be a Planned Community" will be the topic of Mrs. Roland Bendel, newly elected city councilwoman of the recently incorporated Washington Township, Alameda County, at the spring luncheon of the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council on Thursday, April 5, at noon at the El Nido Hotel, Lafayette.

The council has invited all women active in improvement clubs and other civic organizations to attend. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Ritchie Ward, CL 4-3697; Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff, YE 4-8361, or Mrs. Harold Davis, YE 4-3844.

Mrs. Bendel organized the "Committee of 100," which worked to have a master plan adopted by the Alameda County Planning Commission.

Mrs. Florence Buehler, Alameda County planning commissioner, has been invited to share with Mrs. Bendel the role of guest of honor. A question-and-answer period is planned, following Mrs. Bendel's talk.

"Mrs. Bendel has worked long and tirelessly for a plan by which Fremont can guide its development. She has been through many of the experiences we are facing in the central area of Contra Costa County. The Women's Planning Council feels that her appearance in Contra Costa County at this time will be helpful to many women who are concerned with the future pattern of development for this area. We hope that each improvement club will send a representative to hear Mrs. Bendel," saird Mrs. Mitchell Farrar, WPC chairman.

Mrs. Deane Furman of Kensington is in charge of arrangements for the luncheon and Mrs. Sigmund Schary is program chairman. Mrs. Schary is a city councilwoman and planning commissioner in Antioch.

Horsemen's Group To Ride March 18

The Contra Costa County Horsemen's Association will meet at the Badger Ranch in Franklin Canyon on March 18 for a Sunday ride over the State Trail to Briones School.

Guests will be 20 riders from the Martinez Horsemen's Association led by Bill Nulty. A bean feed will round out the day at the Badger Ranch. President Hub Badger is in charge of the day's festivities.

COP Concert Band Provides Sterling Sunday Program

By CAROLYN OFFEN

A fine concert band is not often heard today, and with some reason.

The city park, with it's circular band stand was a part of almost every town across the land a few years ago, and the band concert was a summer delight and institution.

The plain fact today is that bands were made to be heard out of doors or in tremendous halls, for the force of the brass choir and the big woodwinds is of sterner stuff than the string sections which make up modern orchestras.

OUR PLACES are too small and our nerves too sensitive to appreciate the big, magnificent sound of the fine, concert band.

The College of Pacific Concert Band was presented last Sunday afternoon as part of the current Youth Concert Series. The program was given at Las Lomas High School, and the seventy-six talented young musicians, under the baton of Arthur Corra, band director, presented a musically beautiful concert.

That the full force of the brass and tympanny was almost overpowering was due in most to the size of the hall. Even so, the brilliance and capacity of this kind of group was adequate compensation.

Standouts were the opening "Bombasto" by Farrar, the Mussorgsky "Pictures at an Exhibition" and the final "Pine of the Appian Way" by Respighi, which most certainly envisioned the marching Roman army, the tremendous war machine of its day.

CLARINET SOLOIST, Ray Lippert, and his fellow band men and women disproved the criticism that young performers are often incapable of prolonged concentration and careless of detail.

A word should be said for the audience of children and young adults. All the artists and groups appearing on this series have remarked on the excellent behavior, attention and interest shown by these audiences.

We hear of discipline problems in the home and the school, but they have not been evidenced at these concerts, and it would seem there was a conclusion to be drawn by interested parents of these well-mannered young concert-goers.

Local Men to TB Convention

More than 800 delegates from all corners of the state will gather in San Francisco on April 5 - 7 for an annual meeting of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association, it was announced today by C. J. Pertuit, M.D., of Richmond, President of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Official delegates representing Contra Costa County include A. F. Bray Jr., Martinez, vice-president; C. J. Hart, M.D., Walnut Creek, treasurer; Glen W. Kent, M.D., Walnut Creek, tuberculosis control officer, Contra Costa County ealth Department; and James Fluvog, M.D., of Concord, physician-in-charge, Tuberculosis Ward, Contra Costa County Hospital.

Cancer Crusade Officers Named for 1956 Campaign

Richard Huntoon, Walnut Creek, will serve as chairman of the American Cancer Society's 1956 Cancer Crusade in Contra Costa County, Richard D. Sanders, Pittsburg, president of the Society's Contra Costa County Branch, announced last week.

Huntoon is affiliated with the Walnut Creek branch of the Bank of America.

The new chairman will head the sixth Cancer campaign in Contra Costa County. Last year, with Irving H. Magill, Walnut Creek, as chairman, the organization collected $19,735.

"Twenty-five per cent of funds raised are used for support of a national comprehensive research program," Huntoon stated. "This is a phase in which we are all interested because it will benefit all of us both now and in the future," he explained.

He added that the largest share of the contributor's dollar is devoted to local and state programs in education, professional training and community services. In its community service program, the Contra Costa County Branch maintains a loan closet of sickroom equipment and provides patients with transportation to treatment centers.

The Branch sponsors a Tumor Board at the County Hospital in Martinez to provide diagnostic and advisory services to physicians and patients.

The 1956 Cancer Crusade will be launched April 2 and continue throughout the month. National chairman is Ed Sullivan, television performer. General John R. Deane, Orinda, is California state chairman.

According to Sanders, the campaign organization is off to an early start with many committees at work on various phases of the campaign. James Dinwiddie, Lafayette, is chairman of the Special Gifts committee, which plans to complete its work by the middle of April.

Additional appointments announced by Dinwiddie include: Frank W. Chicas, Walnut Creek; Newton Davis, Dr. Kendal W. Caldwell, Laafyette, and Edward Shuey, Orinda.

The publicity committee is headed by Dr. A. R. Reinke, Concord, and includes: James Lind, Walnut Creek; Dr. W. R. Brode, Richmond; Larry Hare, Martinez and Mrs. Harold Powell, Lafayette.

In charge of Clubs and Organizations is Dr. Jonas Schreider, Walnut Creek. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Karl Gehringer, Oakley, and Mrs. W. H. Walter, Martinez.

Dr. W. M. Bogart, Concord, will head the Business committee which will contact businessmen in local areas during the drive.

Harold DeFraga, Martinez, was appointed chairman of the Public Employees committee.

A Professional Committee for Physicians will be headed by Dr. W. R. Brode, Richmond.

A residential chairman will be appointed for each local area, according to preesnt plans. To date, the following appointments have been made: Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Renwick; Walnut Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacVean.

In this phase of the campaign, the Walnut Creek committee is setting the pace with a completely organized district leadership. These include: Mesdames Elmo Rose, Francis Sharkey, Leonard Benson, James McAdams, Gordon Turner, W. F. Quandt, Ralph Becker, George Crockerton, Richard Snyder and Arthur M. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. MacVean conducted a briefing session at their Walnut Creek home for district chairmen last Friday. At this time, Mrs. MacVean called for volunteers to assist with the door to door drive on April 18.

"We will need approximately 800 workers in Walnut Creek to assure complete coverage so that every home will be offered an opportunity to contribute to this important cause," she said.

Volunteers may call the Contra Costa County Branch in Walnut Creek, Yellowstone 4-7640, or Mrs. MacVean, Yellowstone 4-8386.

Science Fair Draws Students

Students in 137 senior and junior high schools of 12 counties are preparing original projects in many branches of science for the third annual Bay Area Science Fair, it was announced by Robert A. Rice ,the fair's executive director.

The fair will be held April 7-11 at the California Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

Students have entered from Acalanes High School, San Ramon Valley High and Pleasant Hill High, said Rice.

NOW...Science's nearest approach to 100% Plant Nutrition!
TERR-O-VITE

Don't feed your plants 30% or 50% rations. Revitalize them with Terr-O-Vite. Supplies CHELATED Iron and other Trace Minerals.

PREVENTS FOLIAGE YELLOWING

Supplies CHELATED Iron, Zinc and Manganese to make sturdier and greener lawns and put new life in yellow, stunted plants... Roses, Gardenias, Azaleas, Camellias and other ornamentals. Promotes fruit set on Citrus, Avocados, Peaches and other fruit trees. The response is often amazing.

PENETRATES PROBLEM SOILS

TERR-O-VITE makes water wetter. It does not have to be worked into soil. It seeps through clays and matted soils to thirsty and hungry roots. Contains 16% organic nitrogen for fast growth, and Chelating agents for releasing essential trace minerals locked up in soils.

Apply with any liquid fertilizer applicator. 1 gallon treats 4,000 square feet.

Get TERR-O-VITE now at your garden dealers. For detailed information on up-to-the-minute horticultural practices, please write for your just-off-the-press 1956 edition of "Doc" Cha-Kem-Co's HORTICULTURAL GUIDE, and folder on TERR-O-VITE, what it is and what it does.
